7-27-2000

Casco Bay Weekly : 27 July 2000

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.portlandlibrary.com/cbw_2000

Recommended Citation for This Issue

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Casco Bay Weekly at Portland Public Library Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Casco Bay Weekly (2000) by an authorized administrator of Portland Public Library Digital Commons. For more information, please contact campbell@portland.lib.me.us.
The Portland Public Market has made some changes in the way it does business. But after nearly two years of operations, it's still taking massive subsidies from the Libra Foundation to keep the market functioning.

Allen Dammann's story starts on page 10
80% of the human brain is water.
Perhaps that's why people have so much fun on a boat.

Why do you carry your camera around the Old Port?
I need a place where I can work with my camera and the Old Port is a perfect place, because you get all sorts of shapes and sizes of people and it's the reason you use to people. If you had shot that series, you'd be too commercial and too much like you do you and you would be up to go for the other camera have been beautiful and they've been down there, and I'm stuck in my people. It's basically for them. A lot of people say it's for the animals, but if you're going to spend a lot of time down here and so I just try to work my patterns in with my camera.

What species of snakes do you have?
They're red-tailed boa. I choose to have one of these boa because they don't have a lot of venom and they eat rats, that's what's plentiful, and that's what we raise.

They're red-tailed boa. I choose to have one of these boa because they don't have a lot of venom and they eat rats, that's what's plentiful, and that's what we raise.

But these snakes have been handled, they've been down here, and they're not people-pleasing. It's basically for them. A lot of people say it's for the animals, but if you're going to spend a lot of time down here and so I just try to work my patterns in with my camera.

What species of snakes do you have?
They're red-tailed boa. I choose to have one of these boa because they don't have a lot of venom and they eat rats, that's what's plentiful, and that's what we raise.

But these snakes have been handled, they've been down here, and they're not people-pleasing. It's basically for them. A lot of people say it's for the animals, but if you're going to spend a lot of time down here and so I just try to work my patterns in with my camera.
Jill Brautigam is a candidate for the 2000 Maine gubernatorial elections. She is the executive director of Main Citizens for Clean Elections, which is the main leading advocate for campaign finance reform. In 1996, her group was instrumental in passing the Maine Clean Elections Act, a law that limits political action committees and provides public funding for qualified candidates.

Brautigam claims that he is a multi-candidate for the 2000 Maine gubernatorial elections. She plans to use his multi-candidate status to influence legislative candidates who accept public money to win re-election and to open and fund district action committees that will contribute to his own campaign and other independent candidates.

"It's really important," he said. "Maine voters understand that the referendum is necessary in order to eliminate all private special interest contributions."

Maine voters have already approved two similar referendums. One, in 1995, funded a town meeting vote on the Clean Election Option. The other, in 1996, funded a town meeting vote on the Clean Election Act. Both referendums were approved by a large majority of Maine voters.

The Maine Clean Election Act is clean in law, according to the Maine State Auditor. It eliminates the use of private money in elections and ensures that the Act is fully funded.

The Clean Election Act is clean in law, according to the Maine State Auditor. It eliminates the use of private money in elections and ensures that the Act is fully funded.

The Maine Clean Election Act is clean in law, according to the Maine State Auditor. It eliminates the use of private money in elections and ensures that the Act is fully funded.

The Maine Clean Election Act is clean in law, according to the Maine State Auditor. It eliminates the use of private money in elections and ensures that the Act is fully funded.
Lift and separate.

If there are two of you, some conversation is considered courteous - unless you find yourself saying “Nice jam, you two!”. If there are three or more passengers, no conversation is required, and friendly.

But then, what doesn’t?)

Elizabeth Peavey should probably just take the stairs.

Focusing on making the elevator arrive, and blocking is bad elevator form. Blocking also focuses on making the elevator arrive, and blocking is bad elevator form.

If you have created the proper formation, you will look like a...
Barber Foods in Portland faces a lawsuit by four immigrants charging discrimination.

Barber Foods in Portland Controversy behind St. John Street Foods

NEWS O-rama

CITY

In their face — because of their race?

Barber Foods in Portland faces a lawsuit by four immigrants charging discrimination.

MARY LOU RENDELL

Attorney Nathaniel Bull is ready to go to court to prove a supervisor employed by Barber Foods Ltd. on John Street in Portland is regularly abusive to people of foreign birth.

"Growing up in Colon Frontera [from the Philippines] and being in a new country, I was not used to that. Well, you know what she is really saying is:" That's [Maria] Pulsoni took over.

In fact, Barber Foods, which makes frozen product and will be famous for hiring refugees, is guilty of discrimination.

During investigations, which took place under the Human Rights Commission, the workers and the setup operators were interviewed about their experience. Marie Pulsoni, who has been with the company for more than 10 years. The setup operators' complaints indicate that the company has not done enough to improve the situation.

Bull's clients — a group of foreign-born workers — are challenging the system by requesting a review of the company's treatment of employees so that they can be fairly treated.

Barber acts quickly whenever employees have problems. "We seek to rectify any behavior that led to the complaints," said Vestal. "The commission vote in favor of the employer."
The Portland Public Market has made some changes in the way it does business. But after nearly two years of operations, it’s still taking massive subsidies from the Libra Foundation to keep the market functioning.

As with any new venture, there were glitches. A month after the market opened for business, people who rotated their stalls were wowed by a dash of interest in the market. Many of them decided not to stick around.

The market is a failure, the vendor said. And even if it were a success, the vendor said, he’d be losing money.

“I think the market’s got a lot of potential,” said Miranda, a vendor at the market. “But it’s not doing what it’s supposed to do.”

The market was named in 1999 as one of the 100 Most Endangered Places in America by the American Planning Association.

“Do I wish it were growing faster? Definitely.”

Despite the laurels, and despite bringing in some businesses, the market has not been a success for many vendors.

“The market is a failure,” said Miranda, whose sales were down by 30 percent from last year. “And I think it’s going to be a failure.”

The market was not successful in getting in the existing businesses that already had a customer base. Instead, they now pay whichever figure is higher, a flat rental fee and a percentage of their sales.

Unlike other markets, the Portland Public Market has a Byzantine set of regulations. “It’s not a cheap cookie. After 15 months, it’s not a cheap cookie,” said Ricker Hill of Ricker Hill Orchards.

“The market is a failure,” said Miranda, whose sales were down by 30 percent from last year. “And I think it’s going to be a failure.”

The market was not successful in getting in the existing businesses that already had a customer base. Instead, they now pay whichever figure is higher, a flat rental fee and a percentage of their sales.

Unlike other markets, the Portland Public Market has a Byzantine set of regulations. “It’s not a cheap cookie. After 15 months, it’s not a cheap cookie,” said Ricker Hill of Ricker Hill Orchards.

“The market is a failure,” said Miranda, whose sales were down by 30 percent from last year. “And I think it’s going to be a failure.”

The market was not successful in getting in the existing businesses that already had a customer base. Instead, they now pay whichever figure is higher, a flat rental fee and a percentage of their sales.

Unlike other markets, the Portland Public Market has a Byzantine set of regulations. “It’s not a cheap cookie. After 15 months, it’s not a cheap cookie,” said Ricker Hill of Ricker Hill Orchards.

“The market is a failure,” said Miranda, whose sales were down by 30 percent from last year. “And I think it’s going to be a failure.”

The market was not successful in getting in the existing businesses that already had a customer base. Instead, they now pay whichever figure is higher, a flat rental fee and a percentage of their sales.

Unlike other markets, the Portland Public Market has a Byzantine set of regulations. “It’s not a cheap cookie. After 15 months, it’s not a cheap cookie,” said Ricker Hill of Ricker Hill Orchards.
The FIRST bottles they hide during an UGLY beer brawl, ALLAGASH
Always an adventure.

"I DON'T SEE THE MARKET ROLLING OUT. DO I want it with government money? Don't bet. It's a shock. We're asking customers to give a lot of different things they haven't had before.

We're asking them to change their customizing options to support local businesses.

— Bruce Gnauck, Reason's Broker

Casco Bay Weekly

MARKET CORRECTION CONTINUES FROM PAGE 11

"If you're a family and you need groceries, and you don't live near the market, are you going to go to them and do regular shopping?" Party said. "I would think they're going to grab something, try it to see if they want to go to go to go to do it."
Deering sand Bayside areas. But Spitzer 's concept of an indoor items, such as the Whole Grocer, the farmers markets in similar experiences. And big losses. to $9, forcing the company to pull out.

months in the market, sales at Ricker Hill people. The market was supposed to attract shoppers who these modifications might be too big, too late. Besides, Spitzer market's original goal, which is to provide a place for winning building. But there...
Street noise

Portland's small busking scene is in full summer swing

"We're just a bunch of weirdos sitting in the streets," says handsome Hoffman, the leader of the foursome who leaped to its collective feet. "DOGS; they don't look too bad, either."

The Dogs game up, didn't look too bad, either. They heckled the visiting members from a distance, standing in front of the high-school locker drop. At first, they were water beneath the sun and his and her heads were long and white.

"I'm so old I don't even know what it means anymore," says late-nighter Frank Thedford, who draws a crowd that large while husking.

"There's always a downside to the lifestyle," says late-nighter Frank Thedford appears to be homeless. "Good luck in the street where you begin to notice how often the word 'free' is used."

It could be argued that the presence of homeless individuals is a good economic and cultural driver. After all, plenty of money spills into buses to celebrate weekly busking competitions. There's a downside to that lifestyle too. Do they look interested? Is the scene worse than expected?

High society

BANNO SUMMIT
TONY TRISHA, BILL KEITH,
RON CODY & FREEWATER
SATURDAY, JULY 28, 8 PM
Call Toll Free For Tickets
725-8769
AUGUST 1-12
Story and Book by Peter Srebro
Music and Lyrics by
Maury Yeston

EDGE

Vodka and irony

It could be argued that the presence of homeless individuals creates a good economic and cultural driver. After all, plenty of money spills into buses to celebrate weekly busking competitions. There's a downside to that lifestyle, though. Do they look interested? Is the scene worse than expected?

High society

BANNO SUMMIT
TONY TRISHA, BILL KEITH,
RON CODY & FREEWATER
SATURDAY, JULY 28, 8 PM
Call Toll Free For Tickets
725-8769
AUGUST 1-12
Story and Book by Peter Srebro
Music and Lyrics by
Maury Yeston

Monday madness
2 for 1 Call zones
4 PM - MIDNIGHT

Old Chicago

375 Fore Street
In the Old Port

W%

TITANIC
A NEW MUSICAL

Call Toll Free For Tickets
725-8769
AUGUST 1-12
Story and Book by Peter Srebro
Music and Lyrics by
Maury Yeston
MUSIC

Prime Cut

One wouldn't expect the manicured rendition of a rockabilly band to be so ... and it is. But the music of.

Fighting Gravity

Constant Comedy

UPCOMING

THE SKINNY

Mondays: The Impression
The Impression

Barber Code
Barber Code

Fridays: Fairytale
Fairytale

Saturday: V elvet
V elvet

Sunday: Blimey
Blimey

www.grittys.com

DIK KATE every Thursday

Play, Party, Dance

Thurs-Sun

BAG NIGHT at the Office

COMMUNITY TELEVISION NETWORK PRESENTS
RACKET LIVE!

featuring

The Pinn
Cupid's Sponsors

Sleeps Be Wound

at Gemo's on
Saturday, July 24 at 7:30 pm
15 Brown Street

www.grittys.com

OpSisters

WALK TO WATERSHORE

Tall drinks for

Thirsts
45 Danforth St
THURSDAY-MONDAY, JULY 27-31

OPSIS MAINE 2000

The latest news on call refers to the latest findings on similar events. It has been analyzed by a team of experts who have processed the local environment. This led the natural scientists and gathered everything up. When the latest findings of Opal's analysis are available, we can expect the same. The big breaks are scheduled to occur just as the afternoon of Thursday. July 12, between Great Diamond Island and Falmouth. A "Careful Bull" on "Moby," its 26, 28-year-old bull, then breaks into the Holstein State Fair and Portland Fish Fair. Tours take place Fri. and Sat. from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., and Sun. from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. In addition to the food, music and related activities, visitors are encouraged to take a walk on the new pier at 9:00 p.m. For a full schedule of happenings, visit www.openscalifornia.com or call 541-8690.

THURSDAY-SUNDAY, JULY 27-30

OSSIMEE VALLEY BLUEGRASS FESTIVAL

Be there when all the pagers ring off, Portland. The festival will be brought to you by the love of the people. For an average of pick, open airbag drums sets to the Opal Fingers for a bluegrass sound. Highlights include performances by the legendary and fabled Southernaires Twin Set, at 9:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. Dave Davis and the Montery Bay State Fair bluegrass band at 8:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m., and at 8:00 p.m.
and 10:00 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 4, and Sunday, Aug. 5.

Sponsored by the Jazzy Jammers of Ossipee and a dozen other music acts, our event will feature displays, demos and booths at the Ossimee Valley Fairgrounds. All shows from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.
50-gallon-day pass, 50-gallon-over-day pass, for a full schedules, visit www.openscalifornia.com or call 541-8690.

THURSDAY-MONDAY, JULY 27-31

PORTLAND OPERA REPERTORY THEATRE

Whip up the madness reigns in the streets of Portland. Meredith Williamson is poised to be the queen of colorado. It's not if you call the opera-going opera-singing metropolitan. Lyricism is something to look forward to this summer. Portland Opera Repertory Theatre tour prides itself in being the same. "Bigband," "The Medium," and "The Toyman" will be performed through the summer. "Bigband," "The Medium," and
"The Toyman," will be performed through the fall.

Tickets are available from Portland Opera Repertory Theatre, 123 Main St., Portland, ME 04101.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1 AND 2

GODSMACK

EXCLUSIVE! After skipping up on a traffic jam and standing in lines for boat rides and more plastic bathrooms! Get over and experience an intimate set where Godsmack's new band brings back homes. Godsmack stands tall for too many years right in Portland. The banding barrack has been the right track to success, we have local rock villains. They don't enter in shows with yellow-rocking Harry's Wailing Widow. Get smacked at the State Theatre, 800 Congress St., Portland, at 7:30 p.m. for $35.75. 7-3331.

Thursday, July 27

1997 4.6 HSE: 32,586 miles. Black, cloth, 6 pass., VIN#CA729213. $21,900.

1997 4.0 SE: 26,621 miles. White Gold, leather, Running

1997 DISCOVERY SE7: 50,431 miles. Black, cloth, 7 pass., VIN#VA362215. $21,900.

1997 DISCOVERY SO: 26,000 miles. Vantage leather, climate

1997 4.6 HSE: 32,586 miles. Black, cloth, 6 pass., VIN#CA729213. $21,900.

1997 DISCOVERY SO: 26,621 miles. White Gold, leather, Running

1997 DISCOVERY SO: 26,621 miles. White Gold, leather, Running

1997 DISCOVERY SE7: 50,431 miles. Black, cloth, 7 pass., VIN#VA362215. $21,900.

1997 DISCOVERY SE7: 50,431 miles. Black, cloth, 7 pass., VIN#VA362215. $21,900.

1997 DISCOVERY SO: 26,621 miles. White Gold, leather, Running

1997 DISCOVERY SE7: 50,431 miles. Black, cloth, 7 pass., VIN#VA362215. $21,900.

1997 DISCOVERY SO: 26,621 miles. White Gold, leather, Running

1997 DISCOVERY SE7: 50,431 miles. Black, cloth, 7 pass., VIN#VA362215. $21,900.
The study of art...
Hamm's homecoming

Hamm, 70, is best known for his work in television and film, including a role in the 1980s sitcom "Happy Days." He began his career in the late 1960s and has been a fixture in the entertainment industry ever since. Hamm is known for his versatile acting skills and his ability to depict a wide range of characters.

Hamm grew up in a small town in the Midwest and moved to Los Angeles in his early 20s to pursue a career in acting. He initially struggled to find work, but eventually landed small roles in television and film. Over the years, he has worked extensively in both mediums, appearing in numerous films and television shows.

In recent years, Hamm has returned to his roots and performed on stage, appearing in productions such as "Torch Song" and "The Normal Heart." He has received critical acclaim for his work on stage and is considered one of the leading actors of his generation.

Hamm is known for his intelligence and wit, and he has a reputation for being a humble and down-to-earth person. He is also active in charity work and has been involved in numerous causes, including support for the arts and education.

In his free time, Hamm enjoys reading, cooking, and spending time with his family. He is married and has two children, and he resides in Los Angeles with his wife and children.

---

Lately, there's been a lot of talk about our Burgers and Beer.

...mmm. ...ahhh.

Well...kind of.

PORTLAND PROWLER

portland

Chris Ruby

Hamish Macbeth, the水管工 and detective, is back in this month's novel, "Hamish Macbeth and the Sinkhole." The new novel continues the adventures of Macbeth as he solves crimes in the Scottish Highlands.

The story opens with Macbeth receiving a call from a local farmer who has discovered a mysterious object in the bottom of a sinkhole on his property. As Macbeth investigates the situation, he uncovers a web of lies and deceit that threatens to destroy the community.

With his usual blend of humor and wit, Macbeth navigates the twists and turns of the plot, using his wits and resourcefulness to uncover the truth. Along the way, he encounters an array of colorful characters, including a shady businessman and a reclusive artist.

The setting is a picturesque village in the Scottish Highlands, and the author skillfully captures the beauty and isolation of the region.

Overall, "Hamish Macbeth and the Sinkhole" is a entertaining and engaging read, perfect for fans of the series and mystery enthusiasts alike.

---

2000 Bates Dance Festival presents...

David Dorfman Dance

Friday August 11, 8 pm

Schiffer-Thues, Bates College

A favorite at past festivals, these dynamic, risk-taking movers, return to Maine with three stunning new works.

For tickets, Visa and MasterCard, call 786-6161.
I am not convinced that I have single-handedly solved the parking problem in downtown Portland. With what has been happening of late, the only way to translate this problem into a visible solution is to paint circles on the road, and the idea is to see if any green could be seen from the sky. The driving lane would be where I can see across the city, including, roughly, the Rose East Final, everything from the South, the West End, the South Street, all of the waterfront and everything in between. This would become an environmentally friendly and educational area.

The only exceptions would be delivery vehicles, emergency vehicles, public transportation and small, specially designed vehicles for the handicapped. A simple city ordinance could enforce the addition of red if these vehicles are present by either electrical or pressure or natural gas. Pedestrians or dogs would be allowed.

There would be so many advantages to this plan, I hardly know where to start. Fixing and maintaining would be the most obvious and unexpected gain, as would mean more space on the streets. The city would become a model of quality with everyone friendly and equal footing.

When would people park in the pedestrian lane? On the weekends, when we find ourselves in crowded situations, people who see others doing so would be more likely to do the same. People would be more likely to do the same. People would be more likely to do the same. People would be more likely to do the same.

Wouldn't this be a huge deal? If we were to program the citi"
COUNSELING SERVICES, INC.

JOB OPENINGS

As Counseling Services, Inc., we offer exciting career opportunities for those interested in assisting individuals and groups in addressing personal and professional challenges.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

SENIOR RESEARCH ASSOCIATE

Responsibilities:
- Conduct research studies in the field of cancer biology.
- Collaborate with other scientists and researchers.
- Prepare reports and papers for publication.

Qualifications:
- A Ph.D. in biology or a related field.
- Experience in cancer research.
- Strong communication skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW

Responsibilities:
- Conduct research studies in the field of cancer biology.
- Collaborate with other scientists and researchers.
- Prepare reports and papers for publication.

Qualifications:
- A Ph.D. in biology or a related field.
- Experience in cancer research.
- Strong communication skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

INTERN

Responsibilities:
- Assist in various research projects.
- Conduct literature reviews.
- Prepare data summaries.

Qualifications:
- Currently pursuing a degree in a relevant field.
- Strong organizational skills.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

TECHNICAL WRITER

Responsibilities:
- Develop technical documentation.
- Prepare training materials.
- Collaborate with product development teams.

Qualifications:
- A degree in technical writing or a related field.
- Experience in technical writing.
- Strong communication and writing skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

RESEARCH ASSOCIATE

Responsibilities:
- Conduct research studies in the field of cancer biology.
- Collaborate with other scientists and researchers.
- Prepare reports and papers for publication.

Qualifications:
- A degree in biology or a related field.
- Experience in cancer research.
- Strong communication skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

RESEARCH COORDINATOR

Responsibilities:
- Oversee clinical trial processes.
- Communicate with stakeholders.
- Coordinate research activities.

Qualifications:
- A degree in a relevant field.
- Experience in clinical research.
- Strong organizational skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

DATA ANALYST

Responsibilities:
- Analyze research data.
- Prepare reports and summaries.
- Collaborate with researchers.

Qualifications:
- A degree in statistics or a related field.
- Experience in data analysis.
- Strong communication skills.

---

CANCER RESEARCH **

LAB TECHNICIAN

Responsibilities:
- Conduct experiments.
- Prepare samples.
- Collaborate with researchers.

Qualifications:
- A degree in a relevant field.
- Experience in laboratory work.
- Strong communication skills.
Ponder Elvis. Alive? Dead? Alien? It is an exhausting endeavor at best. After all, one can never be certain if the sightings in the supermarket are fact or fiction. It if it wasn't true, Elvis we wouldn't have peanut butter sandwiches — or... The mind reels.

drug-soaked Elvis hound dog Elvis? And Graceland pilgrimage thing creepy. Do you really need he yakked in? Oh it is such of course when we do think tend to think about And when you have food, need something to drink.

Casco Bay Pilsner. Where's yours?