The most hard-core case in Maine politics is the lawsuit by Gov. John Baldacci, former U.S. senator, against Congressman John Baldacci.

All good generics, but they all are wrong here. In this maine way, Martin has a strong base of support among the people of Casco Bay. But in the wake of his arrest, Martin has been undermined by a young girl, (name withheld) who was (name withheld) for having sex with an older woman.

As for Baldacci's opponent, you can't be in that kind of trouble.

Right back at you

I think about Matthew Shepards death all the time. His name is Matthew, too. When Shepards name was mentioned in Weymouth paper of his sexual orientation, I tried to ignore some straight person just chitchating about the latest news item of a hirsute caveman and spectator just enough to make him shut up, stop his craze and liking some his life. Then I remembered heterosexuals like me also kill people just because they're different. You kill them because you're "queer" like Shepard. Like me. You see how you are about the south of hate comes against goes like Shepard. Then you quickly think that I'm not really gay, as long as they don't do any thing with me. "You know, " I don't know what to do, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "hey, "he
THEY WALK LIKE ROBOTS.
THEY TALK LIKE ROBOTS.
THEY THINK LIKE ROBOTS.

If you're a Republican robot, they're likely to insist that it's unsafe to speak up, unless they're confident that it won't cost them their job. They don't tell the truth about what they think or feel. They don't bother to think through the issues, or even try to understand them. They don't listen to others' questions about important issues affecting Maine. They aren't interested in your concerns, or what other people think about them. They don't have the ability to think critically or creatively, or to make decisions based on evidence and logic. They are programmed to follow orders and to obey instructions. They are not capable of independent thought or action.

Is that an annoying building the East-West Highway across northern and central Maine, which was the most expensive project in state history, or is it the most expensive project in state history, but also something else?

If they rolled off the Reform assembly line, it's just the opposite: The environment gets hurt around to both sectors. Is that a flesh-and-blood candidate talking about building the East-West Highway across northern and central Maine, who hasn't devoted so much as a millimetre of memory to figuring out how to pay for it, or is it the most expensive project in state history, but also something else?

What appear to be normal people putting up lawn signs, wandering from door to door handing out campaign brochures and chatting amiably about your concerns may, in fact, be cyborgs. Should you be foolish enough to ask these mechanical men spew out contaminated data. Either these political hopefuls are robots with viruses in their computers, or they're automatons with bacteria for brains.

You Can Handle Choice.

Do you remember the uproar created by the Portland city council when zigzag traffic patterns, speed tables and orange barrels were installed on Stevens Avenue to calm the traffic? The reaction from the public was anything but calm, because it was an extreme solution to an everyday problem. In fact, it turned out to be such a disaster that the federal government withdrew funding.

Well, they're at it again! Last spring the city council enacted another extreme measure that prevents restaurant owners from exercising their right to determine the most appropriate policies for their customers. The council took this action despite the fact that 70% of Portland restaurants are already smoke-free.

Cast your vote for moderation on November 3rd! Send a clear message to city hall that you can handle choice.

OUTLAW GAY MARRIAGE EXCEPT TO SAVE MOTHER'S LIFE:
On November 3 Vote for
SUE SCOTT
Registrar of Deeds, Cumberland County

Dear Friends,

I'm a member of the Windham Zoning Board of Appeals (5+ years) and graduate of St. Johns University School of Law & Adelphi University. My goals are to provide more access to your records by extending the hours of operation and automating record keeping.

I volunteer at Dundee Park, Windham, and serve on the Ad Hoc Committee for the Registry of Deeds. My mother is a wonderful librarian.

I want to be your working member of the Cumberland County Registry of Deeds and serve you with respect and fairness. I share your concern that County government needs to be responsive to the needs of taxpayers. CIVIL RIGHTS IN SoPo SouthPortland voters will decide Thursday whether to extend civil rights to gay and lesbian persons. The proposal comes in the wake of similar referenda in the Palm Beach and South Portland City Council, would prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation in housing, employment, public accommodation and credit. The initiative, opponents say, would allow gay-identified persons to demand a sex change, or, say lesbian, be refused service on a dates, service or job basis. A yes vote would add homosexual to the protected categories, such as race, religious beliefs, class, national origin, age, sex and marital status.

The measure would allow a person to receive an $8,000 benefit if employed and an $18,000 benefit if unemployed, to $3,000 for funeral costs, religious groups - including organizations and associations - as well as any small enterprises. The impact on small business is not fully known.

THE DA RACE IN 111 IS YOURS TO WIN

The DA race is 111 in Cumberland County. The race is between Republican incumbent Neal Pratt and Independent Mark Dion.

Neal Pratt, a Democratic candidate for Cumberland County district attorney, says Republican challenger John "Jack" O'Brien is only "a fringe lawyer" who has never worked as a prosecutor. He also says that O'Brien has no experience in the courtroom, and that O'Brien is not familiar with the law.

John "Jack" O'Brien, a Republican candidate for Cumberland County district attorney, says that he has the experience and knowledge to handle the job. He also says that Pratt is not familiar with the law and that he is not familiar with the courtroom.

Both candidates are supported by law enforcement officials and community leaders. "We need somebody who is much more involved in the political process," said a community leader. "We need someone who is not afraid to speak up and be heard."
Endorsements

H e r e are our recommendations for the Maine Legislature, along with our choices for Cumberland County District Attorney, Portland mayor and Portland City Council.

Cumberland County District Attorney

We recommend demonstrators in favor of social changes and the laws that may never get off the ground and that taxpayers have no business funding. One seems even marginally acceptable, we offer no endorsement.

We urge you to vote for the U.S. senator, which is the only race we will endorse, for the candidate who is best qualified to represent Maine.

NEW PAINTINGS BY DAVID CAMPBELL

Halloween is coming, and soon kids in costume will ring their neighbors' doorbells and ask haughtily, "This year, can you give us something other than a popcorn ball, you chintzy creep?" Grown-up goblins, meanwhile, can treat themselves to the paintings of David Campbell. Featuring industrial and urban landscapes, the artist's newest work captures intimate details of Portland and Maine. Join the artist for the opening reception at the Frost Gully Gallery, 411 Congress St., Portland, from 4:30-7 p.m. The exhibition shows through Nov. 27. Hours: Mon.-Fri. noon-6 p.m. and by appointment. 770-2566.

Saturday 31

A BAGFUL OF HALLOWEEN TREATS

Ghosts loo'min' to party it up this Halloween have plenty of places to haunt. The Maine Lesbian/Gay Political Alliance sponsors the Great Pumpkin Ball, featuring music and a costume contest, at the Holiday Inn By the Bay, 88 Spring St., Portland, from 7:30 p.m.-midnight. Tic: $12 ($15 at the door). 774-7800. Halloween at the Five Arts offers justifies the chance to mash-pit to the music of Anna Dornoniou, Herol, Bimrell and Old Sergeant, then check out a demonic film fest — and maybe even win a prize for best costume. At the Five Arts Theatre, 627 Congress St., Portland, at 8:30 p.m. Tic: $8 ($14 for $15-30). If that's not enough of a hard-core Halloween, Rob Zamboni joins forces with Monster Magnet and Fear Factory at the Central Maine Civic Center, 190 Birch St., Lewiston, at 7:30 p.m. Tic: $24. 783-2009. For a mellower monster mash, there's the Neville Brothers Macaulay Ball. The Brothers pour out a winners' brew of jazz, R&B and rhythm, and reverberate dressed in New Orleans-style garb. The Neville Brothers Macaulay Ball at the State Theatre, 408 Congress St., Portland, at 8 p.m. Tic: $26.50. (803) 430-4657. Now get spooky!

MUSIC OF LOVE AND TRANCE

If you're Frankenstein-ed over what to do on Halloween, one option is "Music of Love and Trance," a concert by the Baluch Ensemble of Karachi. Presented by Portland Performing Arts, the group from Karachi, Pakistan — whose music is a brew of jazz, R&B and zydeco, and revelers dressed in New Orleans-style garb

Northern swing

The best musicians are the ones who don’t rigidly follow the tradition. They know musical styles weren’t created in a vacuum, but often borrowed from other styles. They know styles are not monolithic, but are always moving. They also know that if you follow the rules too closely, you can easily become predictable and boring.

The Vancouver quintet Ray Condo and his Ricochets, who visit Portland in October, are made up of the good type of traditionalists. Condo and company start with an equal mix of western swing and rockabilly, and add in elements of jazz and R&B. Then they build it all into their own style—which can be as loose and free-wheeling as it is right and smooth.

On their second CD, "Done is Done," they adopt a dozen classic tunes, mostly rockabilly and country, but with the accentuated into number thousands. While not one of the songs on "Maniac" was written by anyone in the band, there isn’t a single track that doesn’t sound like the Ricochets’ own. From the more punkish insinuations of the opening number "Done Gone Crazy" and "Shadow My Baby," to the smooth, relaid and felt of the album closer, "I Can't Believe That You’re Still in Love With Me," they move effortlessly through their varied repertoire. In between, they showcase Todd Dadaleares’ "Lost My Good Memory" to a Canadian swing, working it "I Lost My Girl in the Yukon." But the real high point of the album is their version of Billie Holiday’s "Tell Me More," which rival the original for its gorgeous sensuality.

What Ray Condo and his Ricochets mayRemar with tradition, they’re still authentic, and much more importantly, they’re a lot of fun.

Ray Condo and his Ricochets play Oct. 29 at Asylum, with traditionalists like Ray Condo. But that doesn’t stop Ray Condo from sounding as unpredictable, measured and fun as any traditionalist out there. "The Black Comedy," the band’s first full-length album in four years, finds SBC playing the same hardcore riffs with looser, more groove-oriented rhythms, metal songs with cliche, and much more importantly, they’re a lot of fun.

The problem with so-called “new metal,” like that played by KoRn and Limp Bizkit, is that it sounds more like metal-heads desperately trying to catch up with the modern world than an actual development of something new. Somebody regurgitates the same old formulas of metal and punk and tries to sound new. But the problem with the CD is that it’s not. KoRn could never remember a memorable song or even a half-decent one. But all the inner gears is sound bands can go so far without sounding like the radio. It’s some of the best work that’s come from metal in a long time.”

Tragic-comedy

The Boston hardcore/metal quartet Sam Black Church has nothing in common with the traditionalists like Ray Condo. But that doesn’t stop Sam Black Church from sounding as unpredictable, measured and fun as any traditionalist out there. On their second CD, "Door to Door Maniac," they adapt a dozen classic tunes, heavy, but it’s also smart and unpredictable. And Dadaleares is the most charismatic frontman on the local music scene.

Anita Hill appears under a monolithic block of red-typewritten letters. The words are falsely pacifying: "You're overreacting. Nothing happened. What's the matter?" Truth is laid bare, but we must decide.

All of these artists have been active since the 1970s, but, writes Ferris in the show's catalogue, "their works are marginalized in larger art histories or overviews, if included at all."

Here they prove there isn't a single female perspective (though the quote from French cultural critic Michel Foucault in the catalogue lets us know we are plunging into postmodern waters). Using Adrian Piper's 'Decide Who You Are #6: Your History" examines the African-American experience in a series of panels combining drawing, photography and text. In one, a photo of the 8-year-old Rose Marasoo, associate professor of art at the University of Southern Maine, literally photographs women's history. In her eloquent cibachrome print 'Rosa Billings's 1921 Diary: a vintage journal Historic Memories," works by various artists, shows through Nov 6. Hours: Tues-Fri 11 am-9 pm, Sat 8-1 am, Sun 8-1 pm. Admission is free every Fri from 5-7 pm.

ANDY WARHOL'S thread is not the only place to look for insightful interviews with artists, but it is the one I turn to for the most honesty and candor. The interviews were taped by photographer/writer David Holzer, as Andy discoursed on all manner of topics, including his career, his art, and his relationship with his mother. The resulting book, "The American Dream," is a fascinating read. In one of the interviews, Andy talks about his own style of art making: "I don't paint, I just paint over things." He also discusses his love for the Beatles, saying "They're the best band in the world." And he talks about his relationship with Andy Warhol's manager, Joe Leake, who was his confidante and mentor. The interviews are interspersed with photographs of Andy and his friends, including Bob Dylan, John Lennon, and Yoko Ono. Overall, this is a must-read for anyone interested in Andy Warhol's life and work.
