SPEAKING HER MIND
how one woman made it out of AMHI alive • page 8
The famous three-in-one Bugaboo Parka can change configurations faster than mountain weather. Featuring a zip-out neece liner, front storm naps, front zipper-closed security pockets, elastic waist, and Radial Sleeve design.

Double Whammy Parka

The four-in-one Double Whammy Parka can change configurations faster than mountain weather. It features a zip-out reversible liner, Radial Sleeve design, chest pocket vents and snap-off hood lined with Zap Fleece.

Nothing keeps up with Mother Nature's ever-changing moods quite like a Columbia Interchange Parka—featured here in our Long's Peak Parka. Includes a zip-out reversible liner, storm flap, security pockets and drawcord at waist.

I saw all the big fires on the wharf, A.Z. Wright's, McAllister, Pocahontas, when they all burned down years ago — (it was) frightening, oh yeah. You better believe it.

Joe Renna, 69, has spent most of his life on the Portland waterfront. He says he grew up working on the wharves until he joined the merchant marines in 1944. He returned to Portland about 40 years ago, and has spent most of his time since then at Harbor Fish Market on Custom House Wharf.

I know it's pretty busy down here in the summer. What has been your experience with tourists down here?—I'm always asking a lot of questions, about the different kinds of fish.

What do you do with yourself when you're not working at the market?—Well, as my age there isn't much to do. When I was young, I used to go out, to dances, have fun, drink, with other people — a lot I used to do.

What about here in the market, how has the clientele changed?—It's all changed; some died. And nowadays we'll sell fish, that was a Jewish fish, but they're all gone, we don't sell it no more.

I know it's pretty busy down here in the summer. What has been your experience with tourists down here?—I'm always asking a lot of questions, about the different kinds of fish.

What do you do with yourself when you're not working at the market?—Well, as my age there isn't much to do. When I was young, I used to go out, to dances, have fun, drink, with other people — a lot I used to do.

What about here in the market, how has the clientele changed?—It's all changed; some died. And nowadays we'll sell fish, that was a Jewish fish, but they're all gone, we don't sell it no more.

I know it's pretty busy down here in the summer. What has been your experience with tourists down here?—I'm always asking a lot of questions, about the different kinds of fish.

What do you do with yourself when you're not working at the market?—Well, as my age there isn't much to do. When I was young, I used to go out, to dances, have fun, drink, with other people — a lot I used to do.

What about here in the market, how has the clientele changed?—It's all changed; some died. And nowadays we'll sell fish, that was a Jewish fish, but they're all gone, we don't sell it no more.

I know it's pretty busy down here in the summer. What has been your experience with tourists down here?—I'm always asking a lot of questions, about the different kinds of fish.

What do you do with yourself when you're not working at the market?—Well, as my age there isn't much to do. When I was young, I used to go out, to dances, have fun, drink, with other people — a lot I used to do.

What about here in the market, how has the clientele changed?—It's all changed; some died. And nowadays we'll sell fish, that was a Jewish fish, but they're all gone, we don't sell it no more.
Portland schools say they need more money than City Hall is willing to spend.

---

LAURA ENNARAY

Portland educators say the city's 12 elementary schools need work that could cost $20 million or more. While city officials agree problems exist, they say they're not prepared to pay for fixing them.

"Oh, God, no," said City Councilor Judith Greenaway. "We can't afford to do that."

The school committee plans to appoint a new city superintendent to look into the problem, and it's going to be on this, it's going to be done right," said Wells.

The school committee plans to appoint a new city superintendent to look into the problem, and it's going to be on this, it's going to be done right," said Wells. "We're going to get to the bottom of the problem, and we're going to do it right."
Holiday punch

In the midst of this holiday season, I find myself envying those families who have a timeless tradition that makes our holidays something special. As the last warm weather puddle begins to dissipate, and the trees begin to “shed” their leaves, it’s hard not to miss the days when we could bathe in the glow of our family’s traditions. No matter how simple or elaborate they may be, our family’s traditions make the holidays feel real.

Our family’s tradition is to create a holiday punch each year. It’s a special way to bring people together and make the holiday season feel more festive. The punch is a delicious blend of fruits and spices, and it’s always a hit with our family and friends. It’s a great way to connect with loved ones and share the joy of the season.

Our family’s holiday punch is a delicious blend of fruits and spices, and it’s always a hit with our family and friends. It’s a great way to connect with loved ones and share the joy of the season.

My family knows an Indian summer is a good way as any to reach out and touch someone.

Politics and other mistakes

Many students are feeling the impact of the current political climate. It’s a challenging time to be a student, but there are ways to cope with the stress and uncertainty.

One way to cope is to create a positive environment at home. This can include setting aside time for family activities, such as playing board games or watching movies together. It’s also important to maintain a healthy lifestyle, including eating well and exercising regularly.

Another way to cope is to seek support from friends and family. Talking about your feelings and concerns can help you feel less alone and more supported.

Finally, it’s important to stay informed about the political climate. This can help you feel more empowered and in control of your own life.

In conclusion, there are many ways to cope with the current political climate. It’s important to find what works best for you and to seek support from others. By doing so, you can feel more empowered and in control of your own life.

My family knows an Indian summer is a good way as any to reach out and touch someone.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the holiday punch is a delicious blend of fruits and spices, and it’s always a hit with our family and friends. It’s a great way to connect with loved ones and share the joy of the season.

My family knows an Indian summer is a good way as any to reach out and touch someone.
Robin Thayer had something to say. For nearly an hour, she had been sitting patiently and quietly, listening through an interpreter as Portland’s zoning board deliberated whether or not the clinic she had fought for more than two dozen years would be allowed to remain in its dingy Elm Street quarters.

Finally, it was Thayer’s turn to speak. She was a little nervous, but that was natural, considering the city council chamber was packed with civic leaders and businessmen who were skeptical about the PSL’s place in the neighborhood. But she didn’t let her misery show.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.

"People say, ‘Tracy, you do great job.” When Frederick met Thayer three years ago in the PSL’s newsletter, Frederick, a woman named Meryl Troop, who is now director of deaf services for the state’s Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse, described Troop as a woman who didn’t use her head.
TROOP is not the type to let circumstances govern her. Last fall, the commissioner of mental health, named G. Drews, troop who can be, the 1996 commissioner's award, "In recognition of your outstanding, resourceful and unswerving advocacy for behalf of deaf people."

Endorsement, tradition and answer- ing are good words to describe Troop, who has been with the department since 1989. When she joined state govern - ment, deaf people were as afterthought on Maine's mental health and mental retardation system. Troop witnessed in person the kinds of changes that occurred when deaf people got there, a fact that continues to have profound influence on the way people think about mental retardation.

Troop is a specialist in the field of mental retardation and it's her passion that drives her to do what she does. She's not one to sit back and watch others do it. She's going to do it herself.

"I'm not going to look this family in the eye for another six months and say, 'I was waiting for everyone else to do it,'" she said.

But the emphasis that within her department now, there are committed professional advocates as well. "This administration, this commissioner, is taking the deaf community," said Troop. Troop is a native of Milton. "I feel that I was standing on them, and I know that they're in a new group of people, and they're helping him."

There's a new look on the face of the deaf community, and it's the result of the hard work and dedication of people like Troop.

Breaking the silence

Troop believes that the time is now to give all deaf people a voice, and she's working hard to make sure that happens. She's been working with deaf people to make sure that they're heard.

"I've been working with deaf people to make sure that they're heard, and I've been working with hearing people to make sure that they're heard," she said.

Troop is a member of the deaf community and she's been working with them to ensure that their voices are heard. She's been working with hearing people to make sure that they're heard as well. She's been working with both groups to make sure that they're heard.

"I've been working with deaf people to make sure that they're heard, and I've been working with hearing people to make sure that they're heard," she said.
LETTERS

Lousy grader

I have never cared for the old-fashioned grading system where a number of questions were awarded full points if the answer was correct. Nearly all education systems in the modern world have abandoned this style of grading because it is unfair and discourages students who may struggle with certain topics. Instead, a new system has been developed that rewards students for answering questions correctly, but also acknowledges the effort they put into their work. This system is known as the Rubric system, which is used in many schools today. It works by assigning a certain number of points for each question, and students receive full credit for their answer if it is correct, but also receive partial credit for their effort. This system has been shown to be more effective than the old-fashioned grading system, as it encourages students to put in the effort to learn and understand the material, rather than just memorizing the answers. I would like to see this system implemented in our schools as soon as possible.

By: [Author's Name]

Democracy for dorks

The Portland City Council was pretty much described at a bunch of dorks in CBS. That makes it rather the best worst city council Portland has had. Average, maybe.

The tirelessness of dorkness is to start leaders. Leaders who want to lead for the people who voted for them. I suppose it has happened in the past. I suppose it is possible to be honest leader who do represent the masses, but it would be an arduous task often. The mayor idea might help.

The tirelessness of dorkness is to start leaders. Leaders who want to lead for the people who voted for them. I suppose it has happened in the past. I suppose it is possible to be honest leader who do represent the masses, but it would be an arduous task often. The mayor idea might help.

By: [Author's Name]

Applause for “Reindeer Games”

I am writing in reference to the negative reviews of “Reindeer Games”. As a member of the Portland community, I believe that this film is a great example of the creativity and talent that exists within our area. It is a film that explores important themes such as the struggle of the working class and the importance of family. The performances are outstanding and the cinematography is stunning. The film is a true representation of the culture and history of Portland, and I believe that it should be recognized for its achievements. I urge everyone to see this film and support the local artists who have worked on it. It is a film that will be remembered for years to come.

By: [Author's Name]

Tribal customs

It is curious and mind-bending to see this paper as a Native American. I have always been interested in the culture and traditions of the Native American people. It is a culture that is rich in history and has a deep respect for the environment. The Native American people have a special connection with the land and the natural world, which is reflected in the way they live their lives. I believe that it is important to learn about and appreciate the customs and traditions of the Native American people, as they offer us a unique perspective on the world and the way we live.

By: [Author's Name]
Finding our most excellent selves: A Visit to the Moxie Lab, where theatrical moxie rules

MARY STAMATEL

In my last diary I acted in "I Remember Mama...DaDa" at Seven Stages in Atlanta, and attended poetry readings in which the poet's copies occasionally flew from his mouth. The venue being the front of a motorcycle, not entirely surprising.

So there was no more than a little curiosity in my noir goggles, or an older audience member, to The Moxie Lab, a four-month-old community theater that manages to blur the line between avant-garde and rock, in a small space on Congress Street. The venue being the front of a motorcycle, not entirely surprising.

In the program, the old actors' circle. The place was packed and the audience was engaged. The Moxie Lab's first play, the one that kicked off their season, was "Ubu's Last Banque," which means "a cautionary tale for all genealogists." The play is a satirical take on the rise of Jim Crow and the fall of the old guard.

The play is a visual and aural treat, and creates enough tension to make the audience think about the consequences of their actions. The actors were excellent, and the music, which included a mix of jazz and blues, added to the overall ambiance.

I highly recommend a visit to The Moxie Lab for anyone interested in seeing a new and exciting theater company in Portland. The venue is small, quiet, and intimate, allowing for a unique and immersive experience.
The person who could speak the most languages in history was Cardinal Mezzofanti who could speak more than 30 languages. And the amazing thing is that Cardinal Mezzofanti never left Italy.

Oddly, marbles are NOT made from marble. Most marbles are made from glass.

Just II of the 50 U.S. states were named after people.

The animal known as a mongoose IS NOT a goose.

Taste that has pleased more people by far than any other drink is Budweiser.

It resembles a rat or moose.
On the Thirteenth Day of Christmas My True Love Gave to Me...

Thirteen Weeks o'Surfing

http://www.javanet.com

Twelve Drummers Drumming

http://www.javanet.com

Eleven Pipers Piping

http://www.javanet.com

Ten Lords a-Leaping

http://www.javanet.com

Nine Ladies Dancing

http://www.javanet.com

Eight Maids a-Milking

http://www.javanet.com

Seven Swans a-Swimming

http://www.javanet.com

Six Geese a-Laying

http://www.javanet.com

Five Golden Rings

http://www.javanet.com

Four Calling Birds

http://www.javanet.com

Three French Hens

http://www.javanet.com

Two Turtle Doves

http://www.javanet.com

and a Pigeon in a Pear Tree.

Give your true love all this and so much, much more with three months’ unlimited Internet access for just $50.00

Call 1-800-JavaNet by December 23rd so someone you love can surf the net on Christmas day.

JavaNet
A Cup of coffee in cyberspace.

And look for the new JavaNet Café coming to the Old Port.
Grill 36
36 Market St, Portland, Maine
772-6099

Join us for happy hour at PORTLAND'S PREMIER MARTINI BAR, located at the Grill 36 Restaurant. The following is a partial listing of our specialty martinis:

Tropical Martini
Jalapeno Martini
Almond Martini
Grill 36 Martini
Italian Martini
Strawberry Martini
Raspberry Martini

Upcoming Live Music:
Fri-Dec 20 - Delta Knights 8-12
Sat-Dec 21 - Jason Ricci 9-1

We also have a wide selection for the traditionalist.
Happy Hour Buffet • Mon-Fri 5-8pm

Chuck's Variety
Try our Gourmet Fried Chicken

We have the cheapest!

Body Building Supplements

at Tropicana

Stop in for our free samples!dorf

244 Danforth St, Portland • 772.1298

Another great gift idea from

AMARYLIS

64 Exchange St, Portland, ME
207-772-4456
Open Daily 10-9, Sun 12-6

GRILL 36
A New Year where to go? what to eat??

Bella Bella
A MEDITERRANEAN CAFE
NOW OPEN FOR LUNCH
DINNER TUES-SAT 5:30 TO CLOSE
205 STONY BROOK ROAD
LACONIA, NH 03246
603-476-1400

Celebrate New Year’s Eve at
THE PEPPERCLUB
DINNER FOR TWO $25.00
• Appetizer
• Entrees Pork, Chicken or Beef
• Dessert or cheese board
• 2 glasses of Wine or Beer
• 2 Entrees Pork, Chicken or Beef
Open Daily 11-9

Oriental Table
A Chinese Cantonese Cuisine
DINNER FOR TWO $25.00
• Appetizer
• Entrees Beef, Pork, Shrimp or Tofu
• Dessert or cheese board
• 2 glasses of Wine or Beer
• 2 Entrees Beef, Pork, Shrimp or Tofu
Open Daily 11-9

CRISPY RICE CAKES
Norm’s own recipe served with red pepper gummy and spicy black bean sauce $5.00

CRUNCHY VEGETABLE BURRITO
A juicy burrito stuffed with fresh vegetables and served with spicy black bean sauce

WARM EGGPLANT DIP
Norm’s own recipe. Served with shredded cheese

COME HAVE FUN!

Norm’s Bar/BBQ
Fresh good food
call ahead for take-out 603-476-1400

Space up your NEW Year at IGUANA BAY!
Book your reservations now and we’ll turn up the heat
AT THE PORTLAND ATHLETIC CLUB
Featuring the newest Mexican food

Open 7 Days
Happy Hour 11-3pm
Call 781-5308 Route 1 in Falmouth

I gazed with fascination at the window display, which featured a detailed toy train tableau complete with a high wooden trestle and painted scenic backdrop, a ‘mountain tunnel, two toy trains, a tiny greenhouse with colorful flowers inside, a tiny dog and several miniature cows in a corral. It was magical and reminiscent of bygone Christmases when we went to see the toy train display at the nearby Prayer’s Toy Train Museum, which organizers hope to open soon in an 8,000-square-foot space at 38 Pine St, adjacent to the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad Company and Museum. According to Scott Hansen, owner and operator of the museum, the idea for the museum started several years ago when his father, designer Joe Leary, created a collection of regular and illuminated toy trains and a diorama of a logging town in his basement. He has now brought them to life in a house and into a permanent display area. They spent a year researching museums around the country before establishing the nonprofit Maine Toy Train Museum, which organizers hope to open soon in an 8,000-square-foot space at 38 Pine St, adjacent to the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad Company and Museum.

The Just ME display, he says, relates to the Christmas tradition of displaying toy trains in windows and hallways. It was inspired by a “wayside stopping idea” created by Hans P. Hansen, a former president of the national organization of toy train clubs, the American Flyer Club, and developed by local artist Jill Hansen. It features a train on a track, with a large boxcar full of gift-wrapped presents, a horse drawn sleigh, a reindeer, and a Santa Claus. The Just ME display is the largest in the country and features a Christmas tree filled with presents and a life-size Nativity scene. It is open seven days a week, weather permitting, from November 28 to December 24, with admission by donation. The Just ME display is open daily from 10 am to 4 pm, with admission by donation. The Just ME display is open daily from 10 am to 4 pm, with admission by donation. The Just ME display is open daily from 10 am to 4 pm, with admission by donation.

Annie Stedman, a resident of Portland, still believes in Santa Claus. She was one of the many visitors who stopped by to see the Just ME display and to take a break from the holiday hustle and bustle.
THE WOODWORKING CLUB

Beginners Woodworking Class: $449
Class Begins January 9
Call to Enroll Today

Introduction to Woodworking, As Low As $149
Work on your own Woodworking Projects

36 East Rd, Unit 12, Cape Neddick, ME • 207-775-7775

---

Smart Home Furnishings for the Holidays

SALE

Most sales are after Christmas. Ours is just before. Look for our 10%-50% off sale tags throughout the store including many great home accessories gift ideas!

PORTLAND • 774-3020
FREE SHIPPING LOCATIONS
ELLSWORTH • 207-665-1234
RICHARD PARKS
Factory Store

- 100 Main St
- Maine Ave, Freeport, ME

MADE IN USA: Factory Outlet Store

MAP

Making comfort, quality, and good design affordable for Maine

---

Be the Art of the Holidays

Volunteer Events

Join us this holiday season to make a true difference in our community. Volunteers are needed now more than ever. Please call to reserve your spot. 774-3020.

---

Find Great Gift Ideas for Everyone on Your List

We've got the holiday spirit, 24 hours a day.

Our helpful staff is here around the clock to make your last minute shopping easier.

- L.L. Bean gifts to delight everyone on your list
- Great gift ideas throughout the store including kids' games, home furnishings, gift certificates and stocking stuffers
- Famous L.L. Bean quality and 100% satisfaction guarantee
- Holiday entertainment every day through Christmas Eve
- The convenience of over 350 new parking spaces

Come see us any day or night and begin a holiday tradition that's made to last.

L.L. Bean Retail Store

Main St, Freeport, ME, Open 11-11, every day, 1-800-341-4341, ext. 2269.

http://www.bean.com
BOB MARLEY
PORTLAND'S KING OF COMEDY
HOSTS OUR TOYS FOR TOTS BENEFIT FRIDAY AT 7:00 PM
PULASKI HALL COMEDY SHOWCASE AT 8:30 PM
SAT. W/ COMEDY SHOWCASES AT 7:00 & 10:30 PM
CALL FOR COMEDY TICKETS (207) 774-9161

Starting week of January 13th
REGISTER NOW!
772-4334
GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE FOR WINTER SEASON

Meat Up Your Wilhelms with Chocolate Body Paint
DROPP ME A LINE...
212 Congress St., Portland (207) 772-9347

Portland Pottery
Starting week of January 13th
REGISTER NOW!
772-4334
GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE FOR WINTER SEASON

HOLIDAY SPECIAL
525 Gift Certificate
for only $20
Regular Gift Certificates for any amount still available

TORTILLA FLAT
A memorable Mexican experience you can afford any time.
Serving New England for over 25 years.

PSC's A Christmas Carol is a winner
Exciting waiting for...
Six Performances
Holiday Week!

Saturday 21
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Thursday 19
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Friday 20
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Saturday 22
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Tuesday 26
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Wednesday 27
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.

Thursday 28
For women patients with oral cancer and those waiting for more treatment, a shower can be one of the most comfortable and refreshing times of the day. A warm shower can soothe aching muscles and relieve stress. It can also help to improve circulation and release tension. A warm shower can also help to improve the immune system, which can be beneficial for patients with oral cancer.
The stage is filled with singing children. It's the annual Christmas pageant at my son's school. Last year was his first pageant performance, and it was an eye-opener. Relish the moments of magic. For the first time in my life, I was not quite so moved.

If it's pretty warm, you should see the innovations made into outfits that bodies in a hermetic effect tell the Fa-la-la-la-la story. If they applaud orgiastically enough, they just might manage to melt to suit the appropriate notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.

But it's hard to be anything other than dazed somewhere along. I feel overwhelmed by Christmas again, just as I do each year, and so do I. But I know I'm not alone. Oh, it's pretty hilarious: you should see the elementary-aged kids wiggle their bodies, a Herculean effort to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they just might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.

But it's hard to be anything other than dazed somewhere along. I feel overwhelmed by Christmas again, just as I do each year, and so do I. But I know I'm not alone. Oh, it's pretty hilarious: you should see the elementary-aged kids wiggle their bodies, a Herculean effort to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.

But it's hard to be anything other than dazed somewhere along. I feel overwhelmed by Christmas again, just as I do each year, and so do I. But I know I'm not alone. Oh, it's pretty hilarious: you should see the elementary-aged kids wiggle their bodies, a Herculean effort to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.

But it's hard to be anything other than dazed somewhere along. I feel overwhelmed by Christmas again, just as I do each year, and so do I. But I know I'm not alone. Oh, it's pretty hilarious: you should see the elementary-aged kids wiggle their bodies, a Herculean effort to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.

But it's hard to be anything other than dazed somewhere along. I feel overwhelmed by Christmas again, just as I do each year, and so do I. But I know I'm not alone. Oh, it's pretty hilarious: you should see the elementary-aged kids wiggle their bodies, a Herculean effort to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. If they undulate vigorously enough, they might manage to hit the Fa-la-la-la notes. They fail, but not for lack of trying. It's enchanting, too; to see there spring up anew an entire rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." There should be a support group for people who reach the conclusion that that song is a liturgical act of surveillance in the aesthetic. Dozens of parents are singing through the crystalline eyes of their recording devices, memorandum the evening. I left my Cyclops at home, opting for raw, naked reality.
Have Dress, Will Party

From Seattle Weekly, for Susan Simonini

The way I celebrate the holidays makes some people wince. I don't give or receive gifts. I refuse family traditions that give me anxiety. I don't do the holidays. In fact, I prefer that you call me during the week before Christmas and say, "What's up?" But I can say that this is the season to be jolly. Not really. Considerfully. Not even, "Hark! The herald angels sing". I don't wear the jingle\-bells. In my house, we say, "Hark! The herald angels shang." We don't drink, we don't sing, we don't pray to a god. We consider the holidays as a make-believe world created by fanciful decorations. We don't cotton to the season. For me, there are no shopping day countdowns, I don't go near a mall, and I never feel compelled to sum up my existence via an endless stack of shopping lists. I'm not the Grinch. I'm just a person who is not interested in the season. For me, there are no shopping day countdowns, I don't go near a mall, and I never feel compelled to sum up my existence via an endless stack of shopping lists. I'm not the Grinch. I'm just a person who is not interested in the season.

On top of it all, at Sugarloaf/USA

The Sugarloaf Mountain Hotel

The grand hotel night at the ski town and the village. Enjoy our 120 deluxe rooms and suites, fine dining and private spa. Our ski-in, ski-out location makes it easy to access the slopes.

Sugarloaf Mountain Hotel, Box 2299, Carrabassett Valley, Me 04947

THE MAINEMALL

Where else would you go?

At The Maine Mall, we think you deserve a little TLC. That's why we offer convenient services like a Trolley Shuttle service available during select hours. Please see the terms and conditions below for more information.

For more information, please call (207) 774-0303 or visit our website at www.mainemall.com.

THE MAINEMALL

Where else would you go?

Our concept of what holiday shopping should really feel like.

With great gift ideas and direct you to your favorite stores. And if you need a break from shopping, we have a comfortable area where you can put your bundles down and your feet up. In addition, you'll find handy mall gift certificates, gift wrap, free brochures, and a Purchase Plus Program that waives your points every time you shop. So this holiday season, drop by The Maine Mall and discover what shopping should really feel like.
Downeast Upscale.
Our new embroidered denim shirt. For when tee shirt just won't do.

Maine Exile Products
Available in stores at

Blueberries & Berries
301-585 M. One South (the "Blue"
Portland, ME 04101

Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10. -
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

Kites - Windsocks
Banners • Fun & Games
Specializing in
thought provoking
designer art
for the whole family
Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10 -
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

TAPACChA

Beautiful Dresses for Holiday Happenings

On Sacramento News and Review,
by Rachel Devin

"Let's go to a movie. There's no
denying it's an incredibly mature film. It's really something that's in my
comparative self, but by
my boyfriend. It's the world."

Maine Exile Products
Available in stores at
Blueberries & Berries
301-585 M. One South (the "Blue"
Portland, ME 04101

Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10.
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

Kites - Windsocks
Banners • Fun & Games
Specializing in
thought provoking
designer art
for the whole family
Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10 -
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

TAPACChA

Beautiful Dresses for Holiday Happenings

On Sacramento News and Review,
by Rachel Devin

"Let's go to a movie. There's no
denying it's an incredibly
mature film. It's really
something that's in my
comparative self, but by
my boyfriend. It's the
world."

Maine Exile Products
Available in stores at
Blueberries & Berries
301-585 M. One South (the "Blue"
Portland, ME 04101

Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10.
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

Kites - Windsocks
Banners • Fun & Games
Specializing in
thought provoking
designer art
for the whole family
Hundreds of items to choose
from, many under $10 -
20% off All accessories & denim for
the New Year.
Enjoy the holidays
Visit our stores in Portland, ME
301-585 M. One South (the "Blues"

The Gallery at
Portland Pottery

TAPACChA

Beautiful Dresses for Holiday Happenings

On Sacramento News and Review,
by Rachel Devin

"Let's go to a movie. There's no
denying it's an incredibly
mature film. It's really
something that's in my
comparative self, but by
my boyfriend. It's the
world."

Maine Exile Products
Available in stores at
Blueberries & Berries
301-585 M. One South (the "Blue"
Portland, ME 04101
Today, dia bold offers more than 100 unique, copyrighted designs in a wide range of natural fibers and colors. Each hand-crafted sweater we offer comes with its own certificate of authenticity.

Magpies, 772-0219
135 Congress Street
Portland, ME 04101
Open 10a.m.-9p.m., Sunday 10a.m.-6p.m.

HARMON'S
BARTON'S
Skid Road St., Portland 774-5946
237 Brown's St., Westbrook 854-2120

Immaculate Conceptions
HARMON'S BARTON'S
In Town Portland, Congress St.

Dr. Jenks
34 Exchange St.
772-0219

TODAY'S SPECIAL
$399 Finished
$35 Finished
32" and 24" lengths in Stock, Tool

ADVERTISING SUPPLEMENT
32

ADVERTISING SUPPLEMENT
32

Feeling a little like the Grinch?

Christmas, and at the rate they are

This is my list of people. Then I run

...is not what they seem.

...and more...

...and more...

Simple Gifts for Simple Living

Jill ofs Maine Natural
Personal Care Products
Organic Cotton Clothing
Scents, Lotions & Oils
Recycled Paper
Earth Friendly Houseware
Customs Collectibles
Gift Baskets & Gift Bags

Lafayette Center
Downtown, Kennebunk
207-867-3873
Mon. - Sat. 9:30-9:00pm

December 19, 1996

DECEMBER 19, 1996

Bah Humbug?

We've got cuddly organic cotton bundles & bears for Tiny Tim, organic cotton sweaters, thermal & flannel shirts for Boo Cratchit & nephew Fred, a tooasty Egyptian cotton blanket for Mrs. Cratchit, even a cozy new flannel nightgown and full spectrum light bulbs to cure Scrooge's winter blues.

Call us cynical, but my family has

The person already had

With a head cut off, crossing names off my list.

... are four, or five, or more

If you buy a gift for someone and they weren't expecting it, one of two things will occur. Either, in a state of elevated panic, they will just not want to get you a complimentary gift, if you'll cross them off next year's list.

It's like you're filling some sort of quota.

... for days, a trip to the fuse box to

By an alien who wanted to take over

... for the fourth year in a row.

... and my favorite: "Look for signs that Nintendo is becoming..."

I can just imagine the "I'm surprised..."

No, ask yourself. Who's on your

...and excitement when my relatives see

...and surprise, yes. But remind me again,

...and excitement when my relatives see

...to the point where we pretty

...and excitement when my relatives see

...and excitement when my relatives see

Tom Clark's

RESOURCES
HOME

Feeling a little like the Grinch?

Christmas, and at the rate they are

This is my list of people. Then I run

...is not what they seem.

...and more...

Simple Gifts for Simple Living

Jill of Maine Natural
Personal Care Products
Organic Cotton Clothing
Scents, Lotions & Oils
Recycled Paper
Earth Friendly Houseware

Lafayette Center
Downtown, Kennebunk
207-867-3873
Mon. - Sat. 9:30-9:00pm

December 19, 1996

DECEMBER 19, 1996

Bah Humbug?

We've got cuddly organic cotton bundles & bears for Tiny Tim, organic cotton sweaters, thermal & flannel shirts for Boo Cratchit & nephew Fred, a tooasty Egyptian cotton blanket for Mrs. Cratchit, even a cozy new flannel nightgown and full spectrum light bulbs to cure Scrooge's winter blues.

Call us cynical, but my family has

The person already had

With a head cut off, crossing names off my list.

... are four, or five, or more

If you buy a gift for someone and they weren't expecting it, one of two things will occur. Either, in a state of elevated panic, they will just not want to get you a complimentary gift, if you'll cross them off next year's list.

It's like you're filling some sort of quota.

... for days, a trip to the fuse box to

By an alien who wanted to take over

... for the fourth year in a row.

... and my favorite: "Look for signs that Nintendo is becoming..."

I can just imagine the "I'm surprised..."

No, ask yourself. Who's on your

...and excitement when my relatives see

...and excitement when my relatives see

Tom Clark's

RESOURCES
HOME

Feeling a little like the Grinch?

Christmas, and at the rate they are

This is my list of people. Then I run

...is not what they seem.

...and more...

Simple Gifts for Simple Living

Jill of Maine Natural
Personal Care Products
Organic Cotton Clothing
Scents, Lotions & Oils
Recycled Paper
Earth Friendly Houseware

Lafayette Center
Downtown, Kennebunk
207-867-3873
Mon. - Sat. 9:30-9:00pm

December 19, 1996

DECEMBER 19, 1996

Bah Humbug?

We've got cuddly organic cotton bundles & bears for Tiny Tim, organic cotton sweaters, thermal & flannel shirts for Boo Cratchit & nephew Fred, a tooasty Egyptian cotton blanket for Mrs. Cratchit, even a cozy new flannel nightgown and full spectrum light bulbs to cure Scrooge's winter blues.

Call us cynical, but my family has

The person already had

With a head cut off, crossing names off my list.

... are four, or five, or more

If you buy a gift for someone and they weren't expecting it, one of two things will occur. Either, in a state of elevated panic, they will just not want to get you a complimentary gift, if you'll cross them off next year's list.

It's like you're filling some sort of quota.

... for days, a trip to the fuse box to

By an alien who wanted to take over

... for the fourth year in a row.

... and my favorite: "Look for signs that Nintendo is becoming..."

I can just imagine the "I'm surprised..."

No, ask yourself. Who's on your

...and excitement when my relatives see
We'd Like to Get You Between The Sheets
We've already gotten into your sheets with our organics Downtown, now we're back to get you into bed.
This winter, let us warm up your bed with our all natural organic fabric sheets, coasters and throw blankets or natural wood cornices, or if you're the homestead type and be the first of all to bask in our cotton/linen blend sheets may just turn the trick.

Cotton/Linen Blend Sheets

Looking for a unique Christmas Gift?
Gift Certificates Available.
Multiple Certificate Discounts

Season's Eatings!

Greet your guests with something great to eat. Freshly baked, all natural big sky breads, rolls, and sweets.
Cinnamon Walnut Raisin is perfect for a holiday breakfast or brunch. Fruit breads, muffins, cinnamon rolls, and cookies filled with everything from chocolate chips to cranberries become welcome, unexpected treats for unexpected guests. And if you're looking for a gift that risest above all the rest, a basket from Big Sky is a tasteful choice for friends, clients or anyone else on your holiday list.

Big Sky Bread

536 Dering Avenue - Portland - 761-LOAF (5623)
Regular Hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday, 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Closed Mondays.
We will be open on Monday, December 23, from 7 to 6 and Christmas Eve from 7 to 4.
Dear Santa,

It seems like forever since I last wrote you. OK... it's only been two years. I'm sure you remember. I was the queer who asked you for some fashion sense. Something I felt sort of silly asking for at the time, since, being gay and all, I should have already possessed such fashion sense in spades. Or so I told. Anyway, it's now two years after that festive request and I'm here to tell you that I'm a little disappointed by the face-lift you gave my half of the deal. I was sure I wasn't naughty. I behaved. Where am I wrong? I still have one new brown belt and I can't find my old one in my new life.

Did you get my fashion sense request confused with someone else's? That was M-a-c, the fulfillment of your half of the deal. I was nice. I wasn't naughty. I behaved. Where is my new M-a-c? There were other requests as well. Could you possibly toss a handful of latex condoms into everyone's stocking this year? As well as the inclination to use them. 'Tis the season. Yes! tz the season. Condoms are a huge favor. Bought for the pier dance will stay out for good. Now that would be something to be proud about. Once they get out of the closet, maybe you can do something about getting them to vote during elections too. But there I go, getting all political again.

And besides, it's time to think about the future. So I'm prepared to let bygones be bygones, so long as you make good on this year's request. To wit, I respectfully submit the following list of Christmas wishes, in no particular order. And to show how well I've become, I'm not even asking for anything for myself. How's that for holiday spirit?

For starters, Santa, I'd sure like to see a great big lump of coal in the stocking of Carolyn Cosby once again this year. Ooops, here's a woman who probably boycotts "The Nutcracker" because it features the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy." Anyway, if you must fulfill her some- what, could you possibly give her a clue? You'd be doing M-a-c — gay and otherwise — a huge favor.

Secondly, and no less important, could you also fit some breaths into President Clinton's stocking? The man has just re -elected under the closest election in history. So it's very reasonable. A special purchase of the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy." Anyway, if you must breathe in something, could you possibly breathe in a clue? You'd be doing M-a-c — gay and otherwise — a huge favor.

Secondly, and no less important, could you also fit some breaths into President Clinton's stocking? The man has just re -elected under the closest election in history. So it's very reasonable. A special purchase of the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy." Anyway, if you must breathe in something, could you possibly breathe in a clue? You'd be doing M-a-c — gay and otherwise — a huge favor.

Anyway, Santa, I'm not going to linger in the past. It's all over under the sleigh. And besides, it's time to think about the future. So I'm prepared to let bygones be bygones, so long as you make good on this year's request. To wit, I respectfully submit the following list of Christmas wishes, in no particular order. And to show how well I've become, I'm not even asking for anything for myself. How's that for holiday spirit?

For starters, Santa, I'd sure like to see a great big lump of coal in the stocking of Carolyn Cosby once again this year. Ooops, here's a woman who probably boycotts "The Nutcracker" because it features the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy." Anyway, if you must fulfill her some- what, could you possibly give her a clue? You'd be doing M-a-c — gay and otherwise — a huge favor.

Secondly, and no less important, could you also fit some breaths into President Clinton's stocking? The man has just re -elected under the closest election in history. So it's very reasonable. A special purchase of the "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy." Anyway, if you must breathe in something, could you possibly breathe in a clue? You'd be doing M-a-c — gay and otherwise — a huge favor.

Anyway, Santa, I'm not going to linger in the past. It's all over under the sleigh. And besides, it's time to think about the future. So I'm prepared to let bygones be bygones, so long as you make good on this year's request. To wit, I respectfully submit the following list of Christmas wishes, in no particular order. And to show how well I've become, I'm not even asking for anything for myself. How's that for holiday spirit?
“Imagine earning Holiday cash for a pinprick at Portland Biologicals...”
Smarter, easier thing you ever heard of. I get cash for a good deed. $130 a month $1500 cash a year, all mine. Donating. I sit back in a soft lounge chair, read, study, talk, or just dream, in a place filled with friends. 60 min. later I'm up and away, smiling, cash in hand.
Come In...it's that easy!
Hours M, W, F 8:45-7, Tu 9:00-8. Sat 8:30-3:00

PORTLAND BIOLOGICALS
900 Congress St. 289 Main St Portland
772-0575 782-0200

Holiday Gift Ideas Galore!
Wear Fuzzy Hats
Backpacks, Sheepskin Gloves, slippers,
1 Exchange St. Portland. Old Port Theater

Hurry Up!
Holiday Specials
Open 9-3. 7 days a week

MAINE AUDUBON
NATURE STORE
1100 Forest Ave Portland 780-2333

WEISI Waring Co., Inc.
Established 1920
Providing the best in entertainment since 1920

CUISNE"

Holiday Gift Ideas Galore!
Wear Fuzzy Hats
Backpacks, Sheepskin Gloves, slippers,
1 Exchange St. Portland. Old Port Theater

Hurry Up!
Holiday Specials
Open 9-3. 7 days a week

MAINE AUDUBON
NATURE STORE
1100 Forest Ave Portland 780-2333

WEISI Waring Co., Inc.
Established 1920
Providing the best in entertainment since 1920

CUISNE"
MOVIES

The English Patient

Directed by Anthony Minghella
Starring: Ralph Fiennes, Liv Tyler, Julian Sands

A tragic love story spanning three continents and spanning over a century. The story is set in India in 1935, where a British army surgeon, Roland Wolfson, is taken prisoner by the Japanese. He is sent to a POW camp in the Burmese jungle where he meets an old woman who works as a nurse and helps him. Meanwhile, in the United States, a young woman named Isabelle Andrews is struggling to survive on her own after her husband was killed in World War II. She is working as a nurse in a hospital to support herself and her daughter. The film connects the two stories through their love for each other and their struggle to overcome the obstacles that stand in their way.

Rental: $12.99

THAI LONDON

Directed by Mike Newell
Starring: Matt Damon, Jackie Chan, Colin Firth

London, 1972. A group of young, beautiful and rebellious people form a club to escape the strictures of society. They call themselves the "Wild Thangs" and they party, they love, they fight, and they kill in a world of opium, drugs and cross-dressing. The film tells the story of the club's rise to power and its eventual fall from grace.

Rental: $14.99

THE LION KING

Directed by Roger Allers and Rob Minkoff
Starring: Matthew Broderick, Nathan Lane, James Earl Jones

The story is set in the African savanna and follows the life of a lion cub named Simba. Simba is the son of the king of the lions, Mufasa. When Mufasa is murdered by his own brother, Scar, Simba is forced to flee for his life. With the help of his new friends, Timon and Pumbaa, Simba grows up to become the king of the lions himself.

Rental: $9.99

MOVIE TIMES

CINEMA 1: 12:30 (FRI ONLY), 3:30, 6:30, 9:30
CINEMA 2: 1:20 (FRI ONLY), 4:20, 7:20, 10:20
CINEMA 3: 1:20, 4:20, 7:20, 10:20
CINEMA 4: 1:20, 4:20, 7:20, 10:20
CINEMA 5: 1:20, 4:20, 7:20, 10:20

BULLETIN BOARD

HELP WANTED

Residential Care Specialist/Mental Health Professional

Misty River Trucking, Inc.
Waterville, Maine

Because of continued growth, we are currently looking to add more Driver/Operators to our fleet. We offer a stable work environment and competitive benefits.

SALES REPRESENTATIVE

Maine Mall
Portland, Maine

A dynamic and fast-paced environment offers excellent opportunities to work with a reputable company. Responsibilities include phone reception, order entry, and general office tasks.

ROOMMATES

2BDR. apartment

Sebago Area. 35 minutes to Portland. $300/mo.

Write about art for CIVIL

Do you love art? Do you have an eye for design and a passion for the arts? Are you looking for a place to express your creative side? Consider joining the CIVIL team! We are looking for a full-time Art Director/Graphic Designer to join our team.

CIVIL is a unique art gallery and design studio located in the heart of Portland, Maine. We specialize in contemporary art and design, and we work with a wide range of artists and designers to create stunning and innovative works.

In this role, you will be responsible for managing all aspects of our art and design projects, from concept to execution. You will work closely with our team of artists and designers to create visually striking and meaningful works that resonate with our clients and our audience.

Requirements:

- Strong artistic and design skills
- Experience in graphic design and art direction
- Excellent communication and project management skills
- A passion for the arts and design

If you are interested in this exciting opportunity, please send your resume and portfolio to hello@civilarts.com. We look forward to hearing from you!
Weekly - Wellness - Directory

Light of the Moon
TOOBS for HEALING THE BODY, MIND and SPIRIT
Holiday Shopping with Spirit
Mon-Sat 9:00-5:00
Sunday 10:00-5:00
36-38 Cottage St., Portland

AMT Certified Massage Therapist
Elaina-Rose Williams
Portland . Falmouth. Lewiston
DANCE Classes for Children & Adults
Streetfunk
African Pilates
871-1013
Portland, Maine
Tango
Stretch

Greater Portland Counseling Center
(all Today
o Balancing mind, body, emotions
Athletes ... Children
o Holistic Healer
o Hostile Healer
o Alternative to drugs
o Healing the mind, body, emotions
Call today to schedule a additional information.
o of healing that supports a natural healing process.
It integrates the best of physical, emotional, and spiritual healing.
Provides access to your own and spirit.
In a state of relaxation.
Available Gift Certificate
Certified • Therapeutic Massage
By Appointment: 773-6912
or free brochure
Stress and promotes a
Patricia Bennett
Certiﬁcate!;4
Free Introductory Class
Classes Available:
- 107 West St.
- 511 & Bingham Ave.

TARI'G

Gorham Whole Health
information for men and women
MASSAGE & REIKI THERAPY
Bosco Warren
675 Chester Rd.
904 state roads
856-5800
605-regional
Maine
Mental Health:
A gift certificate with a certified mental health provider.

ATURVEDIC HEALING
Meditation, Yoga, Acupuncture
Traditional Natural Healing
Karma, Reiki, Ayurveda
Agni's
Phone: 772-6927
Fax: 772-6927
Email: agni@mainevent.com

Sheer Elegance
Hair Design, Skin Care
782-2764
127 Middle St.
Gorham, ME

"A stumble may prevent a fall." - English Proverb
THEY NEVER LOST A FIGHT OR A FRIEND. LOST A LOT OF WOMEN.

SMOKED KAMELS.

EST. 1913
BACK FOR NO GOOD REASON EXCEPT THEY TASTE GOOD

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Quitting Smoking Now Greatly Reduces Serious Risks to Your Health.