Carbur's Story

Once upon a time, two frustrated knights (their cod pieces had rusted shut) were searching over hill and to no avail for a better way to make a buck.

Seated at their usual round table in the village tavern over their usual roast dragon (rare) on "Bunny Bread", Baron Burr grumbled, "I've had it with the same old thing, day in day out." Count Carl clanked to his feet. "Electrolux," he cried, "I've got it! We'll open a tavern all our own. We'll offer so many choices no one will ever have to tire of the same old thing."

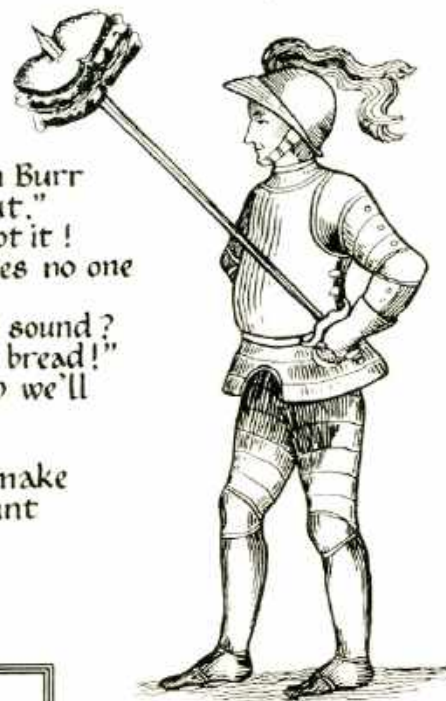

"I believe you've got it," the baron sang in. "How's this sound? We'll offer 5 basic sandwiches on 95 different kinds of bread!"

"Great," agreed the Count, "and we'll sell 'em so cheap we'll lose money on every one we sell."

"But we'll go broke!" blurted the baron.

"Naw," countered the Count. "We'll pack 'em in and make it up in volume." (They didn't call him that no-count Count for nothing.)

The rest is history

Should anything run amuck with your meal, ask for the floor manager right away—strike while the iron is hot (or the soup is cold, as it were).

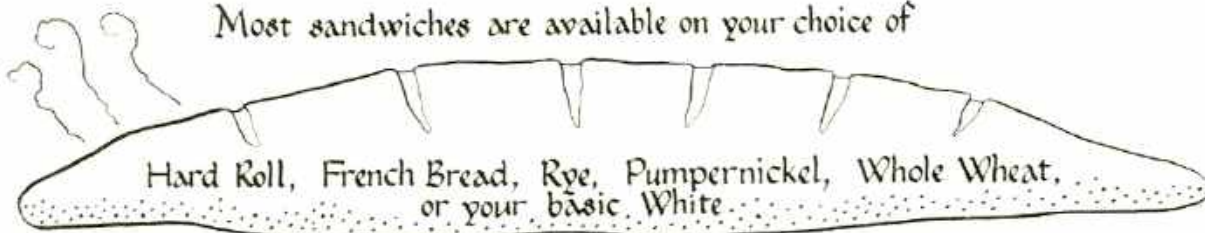

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION

All CARBUR'S sandwiches are made from "scratch"* with the best and freshest ingredients available in this neck of the woods.

Concocting these elaborations takes careful attention and therefore LOTS OF TIME! (Substitutions don't help.)

Come early. Relax over your favorite imbibement. Take in the authentic atmosphere and friendly vibes while those unsung heroes in the kitchen lovingly labor over each creation — just for you.

Most sandwiches are available on your choice of

*with the exception of MITCH THE ITCH which disappears whenever scratched.

 Lentham,
 Due to the lack of millionaires
 in Burlington, I predict a short life for your restaurant.
 Your prices are outrageous, and
 for only a sandwich, no coffee?
 What Burlington needs, is a good cafe like such as the K&D in St. Petersburg, Florida.
