JOHN WOOD

His Marriage to
MARGARET CRANSTON
Eckford  1790

Modified Register Reports:  A  WOOD

B  CRANSTON
BACKGROUND

A 2014 visit to Scotland where Wood ancestors had lived, as well as family contacts made amendments possible. They were sent to those having received the referenced book.

By mid 2014 Colin Cranston of Edinburgh, Scotland sent an email supporting information previously gathered about Margaret Cranston, (wife of John Wood). Over the next several months Colin Cranston added much more about the early Cranston family.

In February 2015 Donald Chapman (‘Don’) through Colin Cranston and the East Hants Historical Society made contact. Don is married to a Cranston descendant and is researching both the Cranston and the Wood families.

With a copy of the Wood book and the Cranston material plus personal research Don completed a Register Report for the Cranston family and for the Wood family. For the last year we have been exchanging and reviewing that history material.

During the exchanges and research it was possible to upgrade the Register Report section of the book. The result; increased overall numbers by about 20 percent and a more accurate history. My report differs from that of Don Cranston due to some different Modifications used in the original. Also my notes tend to be more wordy due to the personal contacts used.

Don Chapman completed Modified Register Reports for both the Margaret Cranston family and the John Wood family and is willing to share digital versions with interested historical and genealogical repositories in his end of the country. As a part of a larger database, Don’s updated information about the Wood and Cranston family is also available on line at: www.chignecto.org

In addition, I am able able to distribute to several of the Eastern locations my revised Modified Register Report on John Wood along with Don Chapman’s on the Cranston family;

Part A. John Wood Modified Register Report Completed by Harold Wood
Part B. Margaret Cranston Modified Register Report Completed by Donald Chapman

The attached material is prepared in digital format for usb drive.

(‘Register Report’ is a numbering system used to number descendants in a family. It was developed by the New England Historical and Genealogical Society in the 1800s).

This is the first amendment to ISBN 978-1-77136-229-0, ‘John Wood, Scotland to Rawdon, NS in 1815’. It was made after 2014 research in the Borders area of Scotland from which our ancestors came.

Access to Old Parish Records with the support of Borders Family History Society staff produced information consistent with and addition to that of previous searches.

In some instances only baptism dates are available and not the birth dates. This was dependent on the practice in the Parish and the Parish Priest or Minister compiling the OPR. Also frequently in earlier birth recordings the mothers name was not given.

(Grave in UTM Zone 20 North and grave size 8x20 feet. NE corner coordinates N4989272.51 and E433477.46).

1. John WOOD.\(^1\) Born in 1765 in Eckford Parish, Roxburghshire, Scotland.\(^2\) John was Baptized on 20 Jan 1765 and shown as the son of James WOOD of Eckford. His mothers name was not shown as happened with other OPRs at that time however it is thought (never confirmed) that it may have been Agnes due to the use of the Scottish naming system. John died in South Rawdon, NS.\(^3\) at advanced age. Occupation: Blacksmith.

The Parish of Eckford in 1760 had a population of well under 1000 persons. That population was scattered among about a dozen hamlets scattered over the Parish. At the eastern end of the parish were the small hamlets of Caverton and Cessford.

An old parish record\(^4\) shows John’s marriage to Margaret in Eckford, Roxburghshire. Cautions were from Caverton and Cessford, two hamlets very close together in Eckford Parish. (Cautions were sponsors for the bride and groom and often paid a security to prove the seriousness of the couples’ intentions). It is usual for the cautions to live near the bride and groom. (Ref. Scotland's People).
Generalization provided by the Wilfred Wood History has been refined and in the year 2001 additional information on John became available from Scotland.\(^5\) John, (called James by the Wilfred Wood History) and said by Wilfred’s History to have been born “in Berwickshire”\(^3\) actually lived his time in Scotland in Roxburghshire at locations a very few miles apart. In fact it was within 100 yards of the Berwickshire border where he was living in Maxton just across the River Tweed at the time he departed for Nova Scotia. Maxton was in the Parish of Eckford as noted above.\(^6\)

It was found that Margaret was born in Caverton (a hamlet in the east of Eckford Parish) and John was found to have worked in Cessford (a hamlet also in the East of Eckford Parish and only a mile or so from Caverton). In fact it was in 2014 that an O.P.R. was found that John had a daughter born in Cessford whom they named Janet.\(^7\) By 1792 John and Margaret had moved about 4 miles from Cessford in Eckford Parish to the Parish of Oxnam where their first son James was born in 1792. In 1794 Agnes was born in that same location.

When John’s first son James was born in 1792, he was referred to as ‘John Wood, Smith in Ford’,\(^8\) which indicated that he was a blacksmith working in Ford. Ford is not considered by local knowledgeable researchers to be just a nickname for a local village with a bridge but a definite location. There was a location Ford in the northwest corner of Oxnam Parish within a mile of the Oxnam Parish Church and the hamlet of Oxnam. It was located at a river crossing by the old Roman road.

John was next living in Maxton when his last 2 children, George and James were born. (This second James was the source of confusion for Wilfred Wood and his History but it was not uncommon for parents who lost a child to early death to name another child the same as the earlier lost child to have the name of an esteemed ancestor preserved). There were several in the Wood family.

(\textit{The blacksmith shop still exists in Maxton, now part of the home of a retired professor and recently being used for metalwork}).

In 1815 John emigrated to Halifax NS with his son James and it was said, but never confirmed, with his wife Margaret.\(^3\) John stayed in Halifax about a year and then settled in South Rawdon in 1815-16. There were a few records of him in Rawdon; Township Minutes in 1833 and 1834 both showed tax assessments for ‘John and James Wood’ in South Rawdon.\(^9\) With John’s name appearing first, he still would have been senior in the business. He was then 68 years old. Anglican church history shows his contribution to maintenance of the church in 1822, common in the community even if it was not one’s own church. John Wood was shown as standing for James at his wedding in 1824 in that same St. Paul’s Church. His son, son’s wife and six of his grandchildren were buried in that plot in the Anglican Cemetery.

Wilfred Wood History states that his first cousin, Sedley Blois, was the fourth generation living in the family homestead which would have been the home of John.\(^3\) We find no record of John’s further existence other than Wilfred Wood Notes stating that he lived to an advanced age and was buried in the family plot.\(^3\) We do know that James (born 1800, son of John) lived in the homestead and wrote his will there. I have been in that house many times in my youth but the house has now been gone for many years.

The Duke of Buccleuch was a major mover and shaker in the Wood area of Borders, Scotland but nothing so far has come to light whether John was one of the Duke’s smithies.

On 11 Jun 1790 when he was 25, John married Margaret CRANSTON, daughter of George CRANSTON and Janet DAVIDSON, in Eckford, Roxburghshire, Scotland.\(^10\) She was born in Caverton, Eckford Parish, Roxburghshire, Scotland, and Baptisted in Eckford Parish.

“John Wood and ‘Peggy’ Cranston gave their names for proclamation in order to marriage. William Duncan in Cessford becomes caution for the bridegroom and John MacDougall in Caverton is caution for the bride.”\(^12\) The cautions would have been friends thus the birthplace of Margaret being Caverton is logical. Margaret was Baptisted on 2 Oct 1757 in Eckford Parish and she was born in Caverton. At Caverton there had been a Chapel first mentioned... in 1176. It had a graveyard used until 1860 and then the graveyard and the Chapel were cleared and plowed under and nothing now remains of either. Caverton hamlet is now only a single farm.

The Cranston family name is significant in the Borders area of Scotland history and may be spelled with an ‘o’, an ‘ou’, or an ‘ow’ dependent on the Parish Priest.

The name Cranston has been used throughout generations of the Wood family as a middle name carrying on the family maiden name of Margaret, down to daughter, granddaughter, grandson and beyond.

No records were found of Margaret in Nova Scotia which was not unusual in the case of females nor were there cemetery records or headstones for either Margaret or John.

Margaret Cranston was 43 years old when James was born and 58 years old at the time of his emigration with his father. I continue to wonder if she ever did come to Canada. The only mention I could find of her in Canada is in the Centre Rawdon Saint Paul's Anglican Church record of James' and Martha's Wedding showing “James parents in 1824 consented to the marriage”. At that time Margaret would have been age 68. Wilfred Wood said in his History that his Grandfather James and his Great Grandfather (i.e. John) were buried in the family plot. No mention was made of his Great Grandmother Margaret. (It is noted that John's name does not appear on the gravestone). It is to be noted that the O.P.R. birth records for her children born in Oxnam and Maxton Parishes of Roxburghshire show her full name as Margaret rather than just the nickname Peggy. In many of the Parishes (such an Eckford) the wives’ names were often not included at all in the Birth O.P.R.!

They had the following children:

3  i. Janet WOOD (1791-possibly 1791)
4  ii. James WOOD 1 (1792- before 1900)
5  iii. Agnes WOOD (1794-1864)
6  iv. George WOOD (1797-)
7  v. James WOOD 11 Sr. (1800-1877)
Second Generation

Family of John WOOD (1) and Margaret CRANSTON

2. Janet WOOD (John1).

Born on 16 Mar 1791 in Cessford, Eckford Parish, Roxburghshire.7,13 An O.P.R. shows the death of a child of John Wood, Eckford in 1791; one must assume it was Janet.14

Local researchers in Borders, Scotland said it was very unusual for John Wood and Margaret Cranston to have had no children for over 2 years after marriage. An onsite search of the local Old Parish Register for Eckford Parish was made and it was found that there actually was a child born; (The O.P.R; 16 Mar 1791; John Wood, Smith in Cessford, child Baptized Janet). This was consistent with the location of John’s caution at the time of his marriage, and, John’s trade as blacksmith and the traditional naming would have been consistent with the Scottish system. (The maternal grandmother’s name was Janet).15

Janet must have died very young as there were no further records. There is however an OPR which shows on 28 Aug 1791 that “John Wood jun, his child from Eckford buried”.16 Our John did not carry the suffix Jr or Jun as his father was James; however there was another John Wood from Eckford born in 1762. He was the son of a John Wood (probably John the father was brother of our James, the father of our John). (It is thus probable that Janet is of our family and it is unlikely that there was a second Janet at the same site, and probably a Parish error in the use of the suffix Jun). (These errors were fairly common).

Cessford was where our John was logically located in 1791 according to marriage records, and Cessford did not have a Cemetery thus the parish Cemetery in Eckford would have been the location for a child’s burial and the Priest there would have entered the burial report. So there is a likelihood of a ‘Priestly error in the Johns’.

An aside note: A second Wood family in the small parish of Eckford obviously parallels ours. Their John, as spoken of above was the son of a John and he was born 1762 in Eckford. He married Elspeth Dickson in Sep 1790 which was the same year our John married Margaret Cranston. (Both marriages were in fact recorded in the same Register page by the same priest). That John became known as John Junior. He married Elspeth Dickson in the Parish of Yetholm which was about 10 miles from Eckford even though he was from Eckford, (presume because of his bride’s location). He had to pay a fee to the Priest in Eckford because he had married elsewhere.

The population of the entire parish of Eckford was under 900 at that time and contained about 10 hamlets. The hamlet itself of Eckford, in which the Parish of Eckford Kirk (Church) is located was very small and is still there.

I am currently in contact with John Wood, GGG Grandson of John Wood Jun. who was born in 1762. He was also a blacksmith. I am GGG Grandson of our John (born in 1765). It is thought that John b1762 and John b1765 were probably first cousins. Both living in Eckford Parish (one living in Cessford hamlet and the other in Eckford hamlet of the Parish in 1790).

3. James WOOD 1 (John1). Born on 10 Jul 1792 in Oxnam, Roxburghshire, Scotland.18 James died young (before 1800). A later son also named James was referred to as James II. This continued the name of a revered ancestor.19

4. Agnes WOOD (John1). Born on 13 May 1794 in Oxnam, Roxburghshire, Scotland.20 Christening 17 Jun 1794. Agnes died (of old age) in Glasgow, Scotland, at 194 London Road, on 26 Nov 1864; she was 70.21
Agnes’ birth registration shows her father as John Wood, working as a ‘Smith in Ford’, Oxnam, Roxburghshire. On 16 Apr 1818 when Agnes was 23, she married John BALLANTYNE, son of in Edinburgh, Scotland. Born in 1799 in Selkirk, Yair, Scotland. John died before 1854; he was 55. Occupation: Gentleman’s servant No 5 Leith Wynd, Canongate, 1st Story (Coachman).

Marriage Record shows that John and Agnes gave up their names for marriage certified by George Peebles, Gentleman’s Servant, Rose Street, Edinburgh and by George Erskine, Gentleman’s Servant Water(?) of Leith.

They had the following children:

7 i. James BALLANTYNE (~1819-)
8 ii. John BALLANTYNE (~1823-)
9 iii. George BALLANTYNE (~1826-)
10 iv. Robert BALLANTYNE (~1831-)
11 v. Agnes BALLANTYNE (~1841-)

5. George WOOD (John). Born on 12 Jan 1797 in Maxton, Roxburghshire, Scotland.

6. James WOOD (II or Sr.) (John). Born on 9 Aug 1800 in Maxton, Roxburghshire, Scotland, by the River Tweed running between Berwickshire and Roxburghshire. James died in South Rawdon, NS, on 17 Jan 1877; he was 76. Buried in Jan 1877 in St Paul’s Anglican Cemetery, Centre Rawdon. Occupation: Blacksmith. Religion: Methodist. The term “near Berwickshire” for his birthplace was used in the Wilfred Wood History and it was only found in the last decade that the Shire across the river was his actual birthplace.

James’ birth year of 1800 has been confirmed as has Roxburghshire his place of birth, resolving family questions over many years. (The year of birth was long a problem as to whether it was 1799 or not; this came down directly from him and it was only resolved when the actual O.P.R. was found after the turn of this century). He came with his parents to Nova Scotia in 1815 and learned and worked at blacksmithing with his father. The photograph is a 1941 copy of an old ‘tintype’ and has been kept in the Thomas Bowden Blois Bible.

James fathered a child Joseph with Eliza SWEET. They were not married. No further record of Eliza has been found.

12 i. Joseph WOOD, (1823-1882)

The child Joseph was brought up in the family of James and Martha Haley when they married in 1824.
Martha

Martha HALEY

On 22 Dec 1824 when James was 24, he married Martha HALEY, daughter of John HALEY and Sarah Jane MASON, in Rawdon, N S by Rev. Hayden, and in the presence of John Wood. Born on 11 Jun 1805 in South Rawdon, N S. Martha died in South Rawdon, N S, on 23 Apr 1870; she was 64. Isaac Wood reported Martha’s death, to George Creed, Deputy Registrar.

In early marriage James and Martha lived on a piece of land which was part of the original land grant to John Haley, (Martha’s father). This land was on the south side of the Herbert River and on the east side of South Rawdon Road.

James bought the first recorded property by the family in 1843. It was 80 acres of land on the east side of South Rawdon Road at the point where South Rawdon Road met the Ashdale Road. At that corner on the east side of South Rawdon Road he built his Blacksmith Shop and other outbuildings.

Across the South Rawdon Road road on the west side at the same corner was his original house located on about 2 acres, referred to as the ‘homestead’. For about 100 years the corner was called ‘Woods Corner’ and appeared as such in various documents including land descriptions.

James owned several other properties in South Rawdon and was shown as paying a tax based on 200 acres in Centre Rawdon in 1851. Properties were not always registered, so when passed on in the years after his death they had gone through several persons without registration. Ownership of the two acre parcel at the South West corner of Ashdale Road and South Rawdon Road was passed by several wills before transfer and his will never gave all the details of the property. It was simply the ‘Homestead property’ and no record exists to show how or when he obtained it.

James had farmland but he preferred blacksmithing. He conducted a large business employing several persons (including several of his own children) and was considered a fine workman. He was a lover of horses and owned fine stock. He had a reputation as a good veterinarian.
James has been referred to as James II. This was a result of him having had a brother named James before him who had died as a child.\textsuperscript{35} James was also referred to as James Sr. in local and county records and his second son referred to as James Jr. in records and even on gravestones.

During his older years James suffered from ‘palsy’ (stroke with resulting paralysis). In 1864 at age of 64 James had already become debilitated to the point that Martha wrote to their son George (in USA) in early 1865 stating that James was becoming more feeble; however he lived another 12 years and Martha died in 1870, 7 years before him. In his final years James lived with his son Isaac and daughter Martha Jane in the original homestead at Woods Corner. (I have been in the house visiting many times as a youth). James signed his will on 13 Apr 1870 leaving his ‘personal property’ and ‘real estate’ to Isaac.\textsuperscript{3}

In politics he was a conservative and he was involved in the community contributing to church and serving on township duties. Although Weslian Methodist in religion, James obtained a cemetery plot in the Anglican Cemetery in Centre Rawdon even though there had been a Methodist cemetery in Centre Rawdon for about 100 years (1825 to 1925). The Anglican Church was always a major part of the community and used by many denominations for all matters and was a recipient of James’ contributions. In fact his first son John was a Sexton for the Anglican church.

Martha’s death at age 65 was attributed to senile debility. Cemetery stone shows her interment St. Paul’s Anglican Cemetery in Centre Rawdon. The Epitaph on her gravestone reads “Saints by the power of God are kept till the salvation come. We walk by faith as strangers. But Christ shall call us home, here”.

James and Martha had the following children:

13  i.  John WOOD (1825-1900)
14  ii.  James WOOD Jr. (1827-1912)
15  iii.  George WOOD (1830-1910)
16  iv.  Sarah Ann WOOD (1832-1893)
17  v.  William Henry WOOD (1834-1901)
18  vi.  Margaret Cranston WOOD (1837-1881)
19  vii.  Thomas WOOD (1838-1859)
20  viii.  Alfred WOOD (1842-1906)
21  ix.  Daniel Edward WOOD (Died as Child) (1844-1846)

24  xii.  Martha Jane WOOD (1852-1919)

Martha (Haley) Wood sent a letter to her son George in USA in 1865.\textsuperscript{43} In addition to the health condition of James, it provided information on the death of James’ sister (Agnes) in Scotland. It was used by the Association of Scottish Genealogical Researchers in Archives as a result of Elizabeth Gay’s research to arrive at key elements of the first two Wood generations.

The letter from Martha (Haley) Wood to her son George in USA in 1865 is shown on the following page.
The 1865 letter from Martha Wood (b1805) to her son George Wood (b1820). It told of the letter Martha had received from George Baillantyne (d1828) about the death of Agnes his mother (born 1784). Agnes was the sister of James, (born1800).

8. John BALLANTYNE (Agnes WOOD², John¹). Born abt 1823.⁵

9. George BALLANTYNE (Agnes WOOD², John¹). Born abt 1826 in Leith, Edinburgh.²¹

George was a merchant seaman in 1856 when his daughter Agnes was born and when his son Murdock was born in 1862.⁴⁵,²¹ When Murdock was born, records show that George and Catherine had been married on 31 Oct 1851 which probably meant Banns were proclaimed on 12 Oct, read for three successive Sundays and actual marriage on the 31st.²¹ When James Wood Ballantyne was born on 21 Nov. 1864 George was a night watchman.⁴⁶,²¹

George Ballantyne sent the letter to his uncle James Wood (and Martha), in Nova Scotia in which he told of his mother’s (i.e. James’ sister) Agnes’ death. This is covered in the reports on John (b1765) and James (b1800).

On 12 Oct 1851 when George was 25, he married Catherine McKENZIE, daughter of McKENZIE.⁴⁷ Born in 1832.

(Shown in 1851 Scotland Census as wife of James Ballantyne).

Family of James WOOD 11 Sr. (6) and Eliza SWEET

Joseph was the first Wood of the family to be born in Rawdon. Due to his illegitimate beginning as son of James Wood and Eliza Sweet, he did not start with the Wood name but received it when he was baptized with his step-brother John, (the first son of James Wood and Martha Haley). James and Martha at the time of their marriage took Joseph in as a part of their family.54 Baptism was No. 228 in St Paul’s Anglican Church in Centre Rawdon performed by H. Hayden. The next baptism on the same day, No. 229, was that of John, son of James and Martha, and also performed by H. Hayden.

Records show Joseph to be with his father in 1850. He was included with James (his father) and James Jr. (his half brother) in a judgement in 185055 so was working in South Rawdon with his father as did most of the sons of James for a time before going on their own. Shortly after he moved to Upper Rawdon and married Mary Custance. He farmed a leased property, 30 acres of land in East (Upper) Rawdon.56 In 1851 he paid taxes on 50 acres of land.34
Joseph married Mary CUSTANCE\textsuperscript{57,58,34}, daughter of William CUSTANCE & Elizabeth Pammeletta BOND. Born on 27 Aug 1828.\textsuperscript{59} Mary died in Upper Rawdon, on 30 Apr 1914; she was 85.\textsuperscript{60,61} Informant: Effie Wood. Buried in May 1914 in Upper Rawdon United Church Cemetery.\textsuperscript{34} Religion: Methodist.

By 1891 Joseph had died and Mary was the head of the house\textsuperscript{62}. Six of her children, plus Asa Parker (widow), and Edward Norton (27 year old disciple), lived with her.\textsuperscript{63}

In 1901 Mary still lived in Upper Rawdon and with her was her daughter Hannah (now 31 years old), and Hannah’s daughter Effie Etta born 1888 and Hannah’s son, Arnold, born 1890.\textsuperscript{64}

In 1911 Mary lived with her daughter Hannah and John Bond (her son-in-law, and Hannah’s husband). Living also with them in Upper Rawdon were Hanna’s children; Effie Etta Wood and Arnold Wood.\textsuperscript{65} Also with them was Lawrence Wood, born 1909, son of Effie-Etta. (See notes under Etta Effie b1888)

They had the following children:

36  i.  Sarah Jane WOOD (1853-1936)
37  ii.  James Thomas WOOD (1855-1898)
38  iii.  Elizabeth Ellen WOOD (1857-1941)

44  ix.  Ann WOOD (1870-)
45  x.  Lucy WOOD (1873-)

13. John WOOD (James ², John ¹)⁶⁶. Born on 26 Jan 1825 in South Rawdon, NS.⁶⁷ John died in Centre Rawdon, NS, on 15 Sep 1900; he was 75.⁶⁷ Death due to Apoplexy (stroke), Arteriosclerosis, Diabetes. Occupation: carpenter and wheelwright.⁶⁸,⁶⁹

Born at Woods Corner in South Rawdon, John learned his carpentry trade and established a home at “Rawdon Corner” in Centre Rawdon. (The corner where the South Rawdon Road meets the old Highway 14 from Milford to Windsor). The house was on the south west corner of the road intersection in Centre Rawdon and the carpentry shop was about 100 feet west of the house. (I remember the carpentry shop which was still there in my childhood).

John was baptized with Joseph Wood, his half-brother on 6 Nov 1825⁴⁹ at the Anglican Church in Centre Rawdon. John acquired much property in both South and Centre Rawdon and sold a lot of it to family members. A few purchases of John are noted;

1. Joseph Blackburn to John Wood, 4 1/2 acres, 1859, for 56 Pounds, South Rawdon SW on Woods Corner, for 59 pounds.⁷⁰
2. Nelson Casey to John Wood, about 30 acres, 1870, for $300.00 in Centre Rawdon at Rawdon Corner. SE corner.⁷¹
3. Alexander MacPhee to John Wood, 30 acres in 1884 for $20.00 in Centre Rawdon behind United Church property.⁷² (I later I snared rabbits as a child).
4. Harry B. Murphy to John Wood, 4 1/2 acres in 1888 for $215.00 at Woods Corner. The exact SW corner.⁷³
5. Oscar Murphy to John Wood, 300 acres in 1890 for $250.00. NW of Woods Corner in South Rawdon.⁷⁴

Other properties in both Centre and South Rawdon are also on record. The interesting purchases are the SW corner at Woods Corner (in South Rawdon) which has a history as being the family Homestead, and shows John’s purchase of it twice although deeds are very confusing.

In the late 1930s I lived with my parents in my grandfather’s house which was about 50 feet from my great grandfather,s house (on the same corner) so I still remember it.
My grandfather, John Cornelius Wood made his father a cane for his latter years to assist him after his stroke. That was passed down in the family, last being in possession of sixth generation John Wood, (Son of John Lloyd Wood). John has now donated it to the museum in Hants County.

On 20 Jul 1852 when John was 27, he first married Mary Elizabeth COLE, daughter of George COLE and Mary Ann HALEY, in St Paul’s Anglican, Centre Rawdon. Born in 1832. Mary Elizabeth died on 20 Jan 1853; she was 21. Buried on 21 Jan 1853 in St Paul’s Anglican Church Cemetery, Centre Rawdon. No gravestone.

She died 7 months after the marriage.

On 3 Feb 1854 when John was 29, he second married Nancy M CALDWELL, daughter of James Walker CALDWELL and Rebecca MEEK, in Hants Co. Born on 11 Feb 1833 in Rawdon. Nancy M died in Centre Rawdon, on 11 Apr 1906; she was 73. Buried on 6 Apr 1906 in United Church Cemetery, Centre Rawdon.

In 1881 Elizabeth Caldwell (Nancy’s sister) was living with Nancy and John. In 1901 after John’s death Nancy lived with Sam, her son and her daughter Melinda across the road in Centre Rawdon.

They had the following children:

49  i.  Rebecca WOOD (1855-1909)
50  ii.  James WOOD (1855-1855 died in infancy)
51  iii.  Mary Elizabeth WOOD (1857-1932)

56  viii.  Christie WOOD (1864-1865)
57  ix.  Anna Maria WOOD (1865-1866)

Harriet Laverna PATTERSON

17 Nov 2015 Modified Register Report for John WOOD Scotland to Rawdon NS in 1815
In 1853 when James was 25, he first married Harriet Laverna PATTERSON, daughter of Samuel PATTERSON & Martha, in Rawdon. Born in 1837 in Maine. Only confirmation is from a hard to read gravestone. Harriet Laverna died in Centre Rawdon, in 1863; she was 26. Buried in Centre Rawdon, NS.

Harriet Laverna Patterson

James married Harriet Patterson in 1853, went to USA (Ellsworth, Maine) with her and they had two children in USA. He returned to Rawdon in 1863. Harriet’s death in 1863 is shown on her headstone in St. Paul’s Anglican Cemetery in Centre Rawdon. In 1863 James married Mary Jane Mason and settled down to farming in South Rawdon. They had a family of 10 children. He was shown as James Jr. in official records and his father’s name shown as James Sr.

Two sets of Church burial records for James exist with slight differences; one was a copy hand made many years ago. James’ gravestone with his name and that of both of his wives is located about 100 feet from the original family plot and his father’s burial site in St Paul’s Cemetery in Centre Rawdon. Physician in attendance on James’ death was Dr. D.R. McRae, Informant Watson Burgess, his son-in-law. Harriet and James returned from USA to Rawdon shortly before her death. Photo of gravestone on author’s 2011 files indicate birthdate.

They had the following children:

65  i. Daniel Edward WOOD (1855-1931)
66  ii. Agnes Janet WOOD (1859-1934)
Mary Jane Mason

On 28 Apr 1863 when James was 35, he second married Mary Jane MASON3, daughter of James L. MASON and Elizabeth NIX, in Rawdon.93 Born on 1 May 1840 in Nix Lake, South Rawdon.94,95 Mary Jane died in South Rawdon, on 19 May 1917; she was 77.96,97 Stomach cancer for 3 months. Buried on 21 May 1917 in Centre Rawdon, St Paul’s.98 As recorded in the death registration. Religion: Baptist.86

Mary Jane MASON

James bought a 190 acre farm by Nix Lake (South Rawdon) in 1871 from John and Robert Davidson.89 At that time Daniel and Janet were still at home as well as the first four children from his marriage with Mary Jane. In 1901, sons Lemuel, Wallace, and grandson Chester (Son of Agnes and John Berggren) were all living at home as was Ethyl (Effie).83 Chester (born 19 Feb 1888), lived with James in 1891 (and grew up there), and was the son of Agnes and John Berggren from her first marriage.

James and Mary Jane had the following children:

Alexander’s ancestor, a Loyalist from Rhode Island, Moses O’Brien, was granted the 200 Acres of land in South Rawdon in 1790; Alexander lived on it and the O’Brien family owned it until the 1940s.

17. William Henry WOOD (James, John)\(^3\). Born on 24 Nov 1834 in Rawdon.\(^3\) William Henry died in Rawdon, NS, on 9 Oct 1901; he was 66.\(^{115,116}\) Buried on 13 Oct 1901 in St Paul's Anglican Cemetery, Centre Rawdon.\(^{117}\) Occupation: Blacksmith, and farming. Religion: Church of England.\(^{118}\)

His marriage, performed by Rev Bowman was witnessed by Thomas and Lydia Hopkins\(^{119}\).

William learned blacksmithing from his father. By 1864 he was living in a house on the south side of the Herbert River bridge and on the West side of the road. Across the road were the 5 mills operating from the water power. There was a blacksmith shop about 50 feet South of his house and in 1866 he purchased an acre of land from Elias Wier\(^{120}\) by the blacksmith shop. Census showed him there in 1871\(^{121}\) as did the AF Church map.

By 1881\(^{118}\) he had moved to Centre Rawdon and sons Robert, Thomas and James worked with him smithing. The above photo, (taken circa 1934), shows the blacksmith shop on the East side of the road at Rawdon Corner in Centre Rawdon which was there until the 1950s. It was still the blacksmith shop location used in my generation and by my grandfather\(^{122}\) and uncle.

An 1892 photo showed that same building as pictured above. It was the probable location of William’s shop while he was a blacksmith there but no record exists of him building it. The building was not there in 1871 so had been built sometime between 1871 and 1892.

Within the decade (that is by 1891) he purchased a 200 acre farm in Centre Rawdon about a kilometre up the Windsor Hill from Rawdon Corner.\(^{123}\) It was known as the ‘Old Barron Place’. Robert, Herbert and James worked with him farming at that time.

William was stricken by paralysis (stroke) and suffered a number of years before his death.\(^3\) His son James took over the farm and William, his wife Mary, and his daughter Ethyl lived there with him.\(^{124}\)

Most of his children eventually emigrated to USA, (Robert, Herbert, William Maynard, Lydia, Martha Jane, Annie and Charles).

I do remember the remaining foundation of his house by the bridge at the Herbert River. (The house was lived in by my grandfather John C. Wood from 1895 to 1897 and he used the blacksmith shop beside it). My uncle Warren was born there.

I also remember the William Wood farm well off the Windsor road in Centre Rawdon where I helped make hay (really hard work) in the late 1940s when his children Jim and Ethyl still lived there.\(^{125}\) Around 1960 the old house of James was moved the 10 miles from its location in Centre Rawdon to Upper Rawdon. Earl Weatherhead bought the house and relocated it on the right side of highway 214 just east of Bond Road. It is still there. It is noted that the Canada Census of 1901 shows his birth as 15 Oct 1833.

Mary M HOPKINS

On 12 Sep 1861 when William Henry was 26, he married Mary M HOPKINS in Centre Rawdon. St Paul’s Anglican Church, Rawdon. (Episcopalian). Born on 31 Oct 1840 in Rawdon, NS. Mary M died on 10 Jan 1917; she was 76. Buried on 14 Jan 1917 in St Paul’s Cemetery, Centre Rawdon. Religion: Church of England.

Margaret died in childbirth leaving Thomas with the nine children, two of them the newborn twins, James and George. Her sister Martha was with them at the time looking after her and the household.

On 12 Oct 1858 when Margaret Cranston was 21, she married Thomas Bowden BLOIS³,⁹,¹⁰, son of Abraham BLOIS Jr. and Sarah (Sally) POWELL.¹¹ Thomas was born on 16 Aug 1834 in South Rawdon.¹² Thomas Bowden died in South Rawdon, on 28 Apr 1911; he was 76.¹³ (Heart Failure). He lived in South Rawdon at its southern end in 1871. Margaret’s sister, Martha Jane Wood, was staying with Margaret and Thomas while Margaret was pregnant with the twins. Martha stayed on afterward to look after the large family following Margaret’s death. On 12 Dec. 1882 Thomas married Martha Jane Wood and they subsequently had three children. He bought the Wood ‘homestead’ at Woods Corner from his brother-in-law Isaac Wood in 1882 and moved there at that time.¹⁵,¹⁶ The home remained in the Blois family until the 1940s. Thomas became the manager of the gold mine in Centre Rawdon.

They had the following children:

106  i.  Thomas Alfred BLOIS (1861-1942)

19. Thomas WOOD (James², John¹). Born on 2 Dec 1838 in South Rawdon, NS. Thomas died in Rawdon, NS, on 24 May 1859; he was 20. Religion: Methodist.

20. Alfred WOOD (James², John¹). Born on 28 Jan 1842 in South Rawdon, NS. Alfred died in Rawdon on 13 May 1906; he was 64. Buried in May 1906 in St. Paul’s Anglican Cemetery, Centre Rawdon, NS. Occupation: Farmer. Religion: In 1881 a Methodist, became Latter Day Saint in 1901.

Alfred worked with his brother John in carpentry, with his father in the blacksmith shop and on the farm. He worked the home farm after his father had a stroke and then in 1864 went on his own, (his brother Isaac remained on the home farm). When Alfred married he was working out as a farmer in “North Rawdon. (North Rawdon is Centre Rawdon). Rev Whitten performed his marriage ceremony and witnesses were James Messenger and Thomas Blois.

He purchased a farm of 230 acres (known as the Ross place) from Henry Stevens for $1200.00 on 9 Jan 1866 which was just down the Ashdale Road (on the north side) from his father’s place. The property extended from the Herbert River on the north, and the lane to his house was on the Ashdale Road on the south and half a mile from Woods corner. He farmed it (produce and livestock) until eventually selling it to James and Ethyl Hopkins in March 1904. In 1888 he had purchased an additional 70 acres surrounding the homestead property previously owned by his father and surrounding that property on the south and east thus filling in the triangle between the Ashdale Road and the South Rawdon to Uniacke Road at Woods Corner. (He sold that to John Custance in 1903).

In 1903 he started in retail business in Brooklyn, Hants Co. where he butchered and sold beef, as well as selling groceries and farm supplies. This was cut short by his death. With the exception of Wilfred the rest of Alfred’s children and his wife Harriet settled in USA by 1903. Harriet’s departure was between 1901 and 1903 and she had moved to USA with the last two children, Roy and Louise. She was unavailable to sign the sale and mortgage papers for the property in 1903. A copy of the document held by author shows her dower with respect to the property and mortgage.

From the Township records, land records and Federal Census records one finds that Alfred was a Justice of the Peace and held various other roles such as assessor, overseer of poor, road commissioner, and Trial Judge with his name frequently appearing on formal documents such as wills and deeds. He was a strong community member, of Methodist faith converting to Latter Day Saints in South Rawdon before 1890 but he was buried beside his parents in the St Paul’s Anglican Cemetery in Centre Rawdon.
On 21 Jun 1866 when Alfred was 24, he married Harriet Rebecca HAMILTON, daughter of Thomas HAMILTON and Lucy CARD, in windsor.\textsuperscript{150,151} Born on 18 Jun 1847 in Centre Rawdon, Harriet Rebecca died in Boston on 27 Jul 1918; she was 71.\textsuperscript{152,153} Lexington Street, Burlington, Mass (Home of Harry Wood). She died there in 1918. In 1910 she was with her daughter Sarah and Willie Congden in Cheshire, New Hampshire.

Harriet’s death was in USA but burial place was reported to be LDS Cemetery in South Rawdon with Alfred’s name included on the gravestone. (An unsupported and obscure record not been possible for your Author to confirm by personal check of the location. Alfred is actually buried and has gravestone in original Centre Rawdon family plot.)

Isaac, the youngest boy of James stayed at home attending the family properties with his brother Alfred after his father became ill in the 1860s and 70s. Alfred went out on his own in 1864 and Isaac remained at home. When his father died in 1877 Isaac inherited the property and in 1882 sold it to his brother-in-law Thomas B. Blois who had married Isaac’s sister Margaret Cranston Wood (and after her death married her sister Martha.) The property was at Woods Corner and was referred to as the 'Homestead' property and the reason for the location being called Woods Corner. Isaac purchased in 1818 from Jacob Blois a 100 acre and a 70 acre parcel of land on the East side of the road at Woods Corner by Blois Road. He also purchased a further 30 acres near his brother James farm near Nix Lake. He later sold those properties to his nephews Edward D. and John N. Wood.

In 1878 he went to USA, and was naturalized in 1900. He settled in Woburn on School Street where he raised his family and continued to live there with his wife, Mary and son Evertt. His family spread out in the area. Isaac had a lame leg. It was not determined whether it was congenital or acquired. He died in Woburn.

On 25 Feb 1881 when Isaac was 31, he married Mary Frances KENTY, the daughter of Terrence KENTY and Harriet MOODY, in Windsor, NS. Born on 20 Oct 1860 in Gore, Nova Scotia (Burntcote). Rev J.D. Blue officiating, (Burncote and Burntcote both correct). Mary Frances died in North Woburn, MA, on 26 Feb 1931; she was 70.

Martha Jane WOOD (James2, John1)3. Born on 6 Jun 1852 in South Rawdon, NS.172 Martha Jane died in South Rawdon, NS, on 14 Jan 1919; she was 66.173,130 Cancer, ill for 5 years. Buried in 1919 in St. Paul’s Anglican Cemetery, Centre Rawdon.37 Religion: Methodist.174

She was called ‘Mattie’ and lived on the old homestead at Woods Corner where she had grown up.
The will of her father James Wood who owned the house and who died in 1877, left authority in his will for Martha Jane (“...her use while she remains single, of two rooms in my dwelling house, namely the room in the NE corner on the ground floor with the room immediately above it.”) The house was inherited by Isaac Wood on his father James’ death in 1877 and he sold it to Thomas Bowden Blois when Thomas married Martha Jane.

On 12 Dec 1882 when Martha Jane was 30, she married Thomas Bowden BLOIS,3,133 only son of Abraham BLOIS Jr. and Sarah (Sally) POWEL in Uniacke Mines.175,131 Rev. Mr. Tuttle officiated. Born on 16 Aug 1834 in South Rawdon.135 Thomas Bowden died in South Rawdon, on 28 Apr 1911; he was 76.136 (Heart Failure). Buried in 1911 in Anglican Cemetery in Centre Rawdon.137 Occupation: Farmer and miner (gold mines). Religion: Methodist.

Thomas mined gold at Mount Uniacke. He and Margaret Cranston Wood married and had 10 children before her death. He lived in South Rawdon at its southern end in 1871.
Margaret’s sister, Martha Jane Wood, was staying with Margaret and Thomas during the time of the twins’ birth and Margaret’s death. Martha stayed on afterward with Thomas to look after the large family following Margaret’s death. On 12 Dec. 1882 Thomas married Martha Jane and they subsequently had three children. He bought the ‘Wood homestead’ at Woods Corner from his brother-in-law Isaac Wood in 1882 and moved there at that time.138,139
The home remained in the family until the 1940s. Thomas became the manager of the gold mine in Centre Rawdon.

They had the following children:

Sedley Emerson BLOIS (1886-1947)
Augusta Leona BLOIS (1890-1985)
Willis Allen BLOIS (1893-1901)

Note:
The letter following on the next page was written on 9 Feb 1913. It has in it much history of the third and fourth generations and is a major support for the ‘Homestead’ identification.

The writer of the letter was Martha May (‘Mattie’) Wood, the second daughter of James, (b1827) Wood and Mary Jane Mason, Wood (b1840). Martha May (‘Mattie’) Wood was born in 1874.
The Aunt Mary to whom the letter was addressed would have been Mary Drucilla Norris (b1840) who was married to George Wood (b1830) and living in Ellsworth, Maine.

The Aunt ‘Mattie’ who was noted with children Sedley and Augusta was the wife of Thomas Blois and Martha Jane Wood (Aunt Mattie, b1852). She was his second wife. His first wife had been Margaret Wood, her sister. Aunt Mary was Uncle William’s wife (Mary Hopkins).

The Isaac in North Woburn was Isaac Wood (b1849) and brother of James.

The final note on family was that Uncle Isaac and Aunt Mattie were the last two of the writers father (James b1827) generation still “left”. That Aunt Mattie would therefore have been Martha Jane Wood b1842, wife of Thomas Blois who still lived on the old Homestead.

Dear Aunt Mary

South Rawdon
Hants Co

Your pretty Xmas received thank you very much. I wanted to send you a New Year Card but couldn’t get a suitable one.

I was glad to hear from you. Hope you are well. Mother was very miserable this fall but is better now.

We are all well but very lonely without Dear father- They say time heals but I think we miss him more now than a week after his death.

Aunt Mattie Blois is well, her daughter Augusta was married last spring and her son Sedley was married this fall. She lives with Sedley on the old homestead. She seems very happy.

Aunt Mary Wood is quite miserable, that is Uncle Wills wife. There is only two of fathers family left; Uncle Isaac in No Woburn and Aunt Mattie in So Rawdon.

I hope these few lines will find you and yours well.

Love from your niece

Some confusion exists because she seems to get younger with sequential events. (My personal observation). Agnes immigrated to USA in 1895. By 1940 she was showing an age of 73 instead of 84. She was always young at heart.

Her name recorded as Elizabeth and Bessie. John married in 1895, moved into the William Wood property on the south side of the Herbert River Bridge in South Rawdon and there he started his own blacksmith business in the shop next to his house. His son Warren was born in that house.

In 1897 he moved to Centre Rawdon obtaining property at Rawdon Corner on the southwest corner of the intersection of the roads beside his father’s place. His daughter Winnie was born in the new house in Centre Rawdon in 1897.

Almost across from the house was the blacksmith shop on the east side of the Post road to South Rawdon. It was there before 1892,²⁴⁹ and must have been and used by his uncle William Wood before William started farming in Centre Rawdon. John also owned other lands on the southeast and the southwest corners of the Post Road.

My parents and I lived in his house with grandfather a short time in the late 1930s. I barely remember my grandmother but I do remember “Jeff”, their black labrador retriever dog from that time. I also remember a little later in the early 1940s my father and Uncle Warren (then living with grandfather) taking me to the place where John Cornelius had first lived in South Rawdon and showing me what remained, only the basement stones and bricks (See William Wood records).

On 1 Dec 1943 it had snowed. John remarked to his daughter-in-law Margaret that he thought that he would have never seen snow again! He then went across the road to Moxon’s store. Later that day I remember Paul and Joanne (my cousins) and I walking up the Windsor hill on that new snow to Jim and Ethyl Wood’s to tell them of grandfather’s death.

The Wood blacksmith Shop across the road from the house and barn at Rawdon Corner was moved to Greenfield (a mile or so away) in about 1960 by Philip Levy where he set up behind the Moxon store which he had previously moved there. It was attached to the store and became housing for feed etc.

I have donated my grandfather John Cornelius’ top hat to the museum in Hants County. It appeared as if it had been seldom worn.

The 24 May would seem to be the correct day. Census does not show him after 1901. Must presume the 1935 on gravestone should read 1905 instead of 1935. Lived at home with her brother James (‘Lame’ Jim) on a lane to the left of old Highway 14 going toward Windsor and about one mile west of ‘Rawdon Corner.’ I used to visit in 1940s.

Note that Ethyl’s cemetery headstone shared with Jim shows a birthdate as 1875. As her brother Charles was born on 1875 and he and Ethyl were not twins, the Wilfred reported date of 1878 would probably be more accurate. Ethyl moved after James’ death closer to Rawdon Corner selling the farm to McClares for $1800. She then lived on the south side of the Windsor Hill near its top in Centre Rawdon.

As an interesting side note, Ethyl was courted by Howard Anthony, a very eligible bachelor who lived in Rawdon with his brother. In loyalty to her brother Jim, Ethyl stayed with him and would not accept Howard’s overtures. Howard in turn remained unmarried and with his brother.

Death also shown as 2 Feb 1960.

Wilfred Wood wrote the history in 1941 of the Rawdon Wood Family and it should be read very carefully to get the maximum meaning as his writing conveys much meaning.

Harry was educated in Rawdon School and stayed with his father until he was 20 years old. Then he worked for 2 years for Michael Casey on his farm in Centre Rawdon. After moving to Arlington USA he took charge of stables at a school for mentally challenged. Then after another 15 months he went into the express business in Portland, NH working for his brothers, ("Wood Brothers Express"). Fifteen months later he returned to Arlington and worked for Johnson’s Express for eight months. Next he engaged in the express business himself with brother Burpee. (His business was similar but not connected with that of his brothers, Burpee and Rufus in Portsmouth, NH.) The business did a general express business between Arlington and Boston. Later they took on furniture and piano moving. Their first place of business was at the old Robbins stable, corner of Academy Street and Massachusetts Avenue. (since removed). After two years they moved to the Chace Stables at the rear of the Universalist Church, and also moved to the stables on Broadway. The first office was at the house of Harry Wood and the first downtown office was established and later located on Water Street.

In February 1908 they moved to Massachusetts Avenue at which time they kept 18 horses and ran six wagons to and from Boston. Harry looked out for the Arlington business and his brother Roy looked out for the Boston trade. He married Maud Lawrence of Kings County, NS on 31 Dec 1898. Later on he tired of the express business and bought a home in 1896 in Arlington, MA. Later in 1918 he lived in Burlington, MA where he had a farm and a store. Harry and Maud were divorced after 1930. US Census of 1910, 1920 and 1930 show Harry’s marriage continuing with Maud and the 1940 census then shows Ethyl as his wife.

In 1910 Harry was living in Arlington with Maud and his mother-in-law and father-in-law lived with them. After his divorce with Maud (after 1930) he married Ethyl Smith and returned to Oxford, Nova Scotia settling in Oxford about 1947 where he died in 1950.

(From Muriel Cardinal Johnston records): “When we lived at Delano Park we used to ride out to the farm (i.e. Harry’s) in Burlington on hot evenings. Dad (Walter Cardinal) had a Hudson. Harry’s farm was at Woods Corner MA; he had a small store and great ice cream. Ethyl (his second wife) was nice to us. Harry had disowned my mother when she had married “that Catholic gangster from Boston”, but by then he had somewhat relented. I remember when he returned to Nova Scotia, he and Ethyl came to visit us at Ridgmount Street (I was either a junior or senior at Brighton high school so it was ’45 or ’46). He went out to the kitchen where mom (Alta Florence) was and said “Alta, you got the best of the bunch”, alluding to Walter.

On 31 Dec 1898 when Harry was 24, he first married Maud Hattie LAWRENCE, daughter of Solomon H LAWRENCE and Mary Sophia GRAHAM, in Arlington, MA. Born 15 Nov 1870 in Kings Co. Nova Scotia. Maud Hattie died in Jamaica Plain, MA, in Mar 1963; she was 92. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Boston, MA.

Warren lived his first two years in South Rawdon. The second house on the west side of the South Rawdon Road across the bridge over the River Herbert. He then moved by 1897 to, and grew up in, Centre Rawdon in the house at “Rawdon Corner.” The house was originally the home of John Cornelius Wood, with the old home behind it of John and Nancy Wood (his grandparents). It was gone before the 1970s.

Warren was working in Saskatchewan in 1917 at which time he joined the Royal Canadian Navy. He sent several letters home during that period which not many years ago I was able to send to my cousin Joanne (his daughter) and which she preserved. After his Navy time Warren went to USA, married Margaret and they had their family. They returned to the Rawdon home while the children were young and stayed there until children reached high school age. They then returned to Wheaton, USA where he worked as a heavy equipment operator. Some years after Margaret’s death he remarried and returned again to NS in the 1950s where his wife Helen and their son James were able to live in the home at Rawdon Corner until Warren’s death in 1968 several years after having had a stroke.

After WW II Winnie also coached deafened veterans returning from the war. In 1970 a Fellowship was named in her honour by the Clarks School for the Deaf in Northampton, MA, USA.

Winnie loved music and always encouraged her daughters in that pursuit. One of her delights was listening to them singing in harmony.
On 30 Jul 1927 when Winnie Rebecca was 29, she married Ralph Benjamin WHITTIER, 529 son of Benjamin Lionel WHITTIER and Annie Melita MILLER, in Centre Rawdon, NS. 78 She was married in her fathers’ house. Born on 18 Nov 1899 in Upper Rawdon, Ralph Benjamin died in Upper Rawdon, on 31 Oct 1983; he was 83. United Church Cemetery. Obit. on file. Buried in Upper Rawdon. United Church Cemetery. Occupation: In Air Force toward end of WW I, and Army from 1939 to 1947 in World War II. Retired as Captain, Armoured Corps. Education: High School in one room school in Upper Rawdon. Religion: United.

Toward the end of WW I at age 17, he entered military service with the Air Force remaining with it to the end of the war. He then trained as a wireless operator and worked with the Merchant Navy sailing around the world. This continued to about 1929 when he started his family he stopped going to sea and partnered in a radio shop. He was self taught in many areas as well as having a broad background of experience and a brilliant mind.

I remember well his guidance while I lived with he and Aunt Winnie, even in areas such university mathematics. His military role during WW II included a period in England and subsequently in Halifax with Artillery Defence working for some time at York Redoubt until his retirement in 1947. He started military training as a private retiring as a Captain. As a young man he was the one to remain at home looking after aging relatives. He loved to sing and was a member in church choir as well as being a lay minister. Before WW II he began working for London Life Insurance Company which he continued after retirement from the Army. On retiring from London Life he moved home to Upper Rawdon and then he studied and became a well recognized authority on the history of Rawdon Township. His research is preserved on microfilm in the Archives in Halifax and the written records in the West Hants Museum in Windsor.

Ralph and Winnie had the following children:

437  i.  Joyce Marie WHITTIER (1929-)
438  ii.  Nancy Louise WHITTIER (1934-)
439  iii.  Winifred Scott WHITTIER (1936-)

Willard James WOOD

189. Willard James WOOD (John Cornelius4, John3, James2, John1). Born on 16 Jan 1900 in Centre Rawdon. 78,532,533 Willard James died in Newport Station, on 6 Dec 1973; he was 73. 527 Buried on 9 Dec 1973 in Centre Rawdon. 527 United Church Cemetery. Occupation: Blacksmith. (Willard in centre of above photo).
As a young man Willard worked as Special Police during prohibition time; the Canadian version of a “Revenuer”. Reports are that he did not like the job because so many were from his country area. Later, he too followed tradition and was a blacksmith and worked for years at Webb-Spark and Webb Engineering in Halifax.

I remember two very specific things about the type of person he was; in 1951 I had a major motorcycle accident in which among other things the aluminum base of the engine was split from end to end. He, as another one of our Wood blacksmiths was the one able and willing to weld it (a significant job in aluminum at that time).

Another memory from 1954, the day I married, he was there passing me the keys of his car and saying “Sammy, you should have a car for the next week or two”.

Willard lived in Cheverie in early life and in the latter part he lived in Newport Station in an apartment in his brother Lionel’s house for many years. Always interested in horses as were most of the family. I remember so well going with him, Uncle Lionel and my father to the races on the Halifax Commons.

On 4 May 1922 when Willard James was 22, he married Elsie Merrian SPLANE, daughter of Alfred SPLANE and Bessie GLENN, in Windsor. Born on 14 May 1902 in Lorneville, Saint John, NB. Elsie Merrian died in Cheverie, Hants Co., on 4 Feb 1998; she was 95.

191. Harold Samuel WOOD (John Cornelius\(^4\), John\(^3\), James\(^2\), John\(^1\)). Born on 7 Feb 1906 in Centre Rawdon.\(^{78,537}\) Harold Samuel died in Dartmouth NS, on 12 Sep 1958; he was 52. Informant; Lionel Wood.

In the late 1930s my father, Harold moved us in for a short time with grandfather at Rawdon Corner. In 1938/1939 Dad bought the Centre Rawdon farm from his aunt Belle (wife of deceased James Edward Wood). The farm was located beside the United Church at the top of the ‘Moxon’ hill in Centre Rawdon.

During the war years he served in accounts attached with the RCAF in Gander Newfoundland. He was there at the time of the air accident and death of Sir Frederick Banting (of insulin fame).

He had TB as a young man and recovered. His TB returned in 1945 and lasted 3 years. He was one of the very first in Nova Scotia put on a new treatment regimen (Isoniazid, Para amino salicylic Acid and Streptomycin). That, along with partial lung and rib removal resulted in his recovery. He then started, owned and operated a bus service from 1948 until moving to Halifax in 1951. He then started working at Cruickshank’s Funeral Home and completed his education and licensing for embalming and funeral management. He continued in funeral business at Lindsay’s in Bedford and then J. Albert Walker Funeral Home in Dartmouth. He moved to Middle Sackville and was there until his death in 1958. The TB treatment was successful but his life was cut short by a fatal myocardial infarction at age 52.

He was an extremely gentle and supportive father and family man who loved everyone and was loved by everyone and he was always able to make everyone around him feel good, especially the children.

I remember her so often reciting the old poems and stories. I remember her descriptions of Greece and Rome and other exotic places while I was a child. I was first in Greece many years after her stories and saw in front of me exactly what she had described so vividly.
I knew the names of the places and what to expect. it was a very emotional experience and hard to imagine particularly since she had never been there. I never think of it without moisture coming in my eyes.

I remember her presenting lengthly entertaining monologues to groups at community events without notes, reference or prompting. She was always busy, always interested, always had time, a superior cook and gardner.

She returned to teaching in the mid 1950s, taught one more year in Middle Sackville after the death of my dad, then moved to Bible Hill, bought a house and taught there until her death in 1969. I also remember the year while she was teaching that at the same time she studied and wrote senior matriculation examinations upgrading her teaching license. And I always remember her total devotion to family right up to the day she died.

They had one child:

447 i. Harold Samuel WOOD (1932-)

Minnie WOOD

A strong and well remembered family member with unconditional love and support for family and friends. A born nurse and teacher. Along with family, friends, her religion and her nursing she loved music especially playing the piano. Cribbage was her game and knitting her handicraft. Known by the family as “Auntie Trix.” She suffered a severe stroke just before retirement and lived the next 10 years in a nursing facility where she handled the medical challenges with the same strengths and dignity and care for others that she showed throughout life.

Grew up in Stanley working on farm, in the woods and with horses. In early 1940s, began working in law enforcement finishing in Bridgewater in mid 1960s as Chief of Police. He was a very capable self-taught musician (harpmonica and accordion), a mechanic, a cook and he produced many wood working projects showing exceptional skill.

- 448 i. Gail Louise HOPKINS (1946-)
- 449 ii. Florence Linda HOPKINS (1950-)
193. Lionel WOOD (John Cornelius4, John3, James2, John1)529. Born on 23 Sep 1913 in Centre Rawdon.78 Lionel died in Newport Station, on 10 Mar 1991; he was 77.539 Buried in Centre Rawdon. United Church Cemetery. Occupation: War service 1939-45, Blacksmith in Newport, NS. Education: Completed high School. Religion: United.

As a young man he had played soccer. At the time of his mother’s death in 1934 Lionel was working as a blacksmith in his father’s shop in Centre Rawdon.

Lionel served with Canadian Army (Royal Canadian Engineers), from 1939 to 1945 in England, Germany and Holland in the trade as Sapper using his blacksmith skills.

After full wartime service he started his own blacksmith shop in Newport Corner as well as working at various other jobs such as trucking heavy equipment with Fundy Construction, Dept. of Highways and Wards Heavy Hauling.

Lionel was always interested in horses and often owned one or several horses which he trained and raced in harness racing. Uncle Lionel was a big man; I remember when he gave me an extra anvil he had which he gently put in the back of my car as though it was box of cereal. (I kept it for 30 years and it travelled on all my moves across Canada. During Lionel’s time in Britain in WW II he attempted to obtain information about our Scottish connection but received, as did I many years later the same answers which were that the information we had was insufficient to find the answers for which we were looking.

His love for horses was always a major thing in his life; he owned many and enjoyed them all.

Family of Malinda (Aunt Linnie) WOOD (64) and Alexander Norman STEPHEN
Evelyn Sarah STEPHEN

Resided in Windsor Junction, NS.
In 1985 I came from Winnipeg, to attend Aunt Minnie's funeral. On the way to the funeral in Stanley I was driving from Bedford to Stanley via Beaverbank Road using my mother-in-law's older car. On the relatively desolate Beaverbank Road the vehicle stopped and just would not start. As I pondered and paced, along came a car, which stopped. It was Evelyn and her sister Gertie who said “Hi Sammy, problem”? They were on the way to the funeral, took me with them and dropped me at the car on the way back (at which time it started and behaved as though it had never stopped). That was the last time I saw either of them. Evelyn’s marriage registration shows spelling of her mothers name as Malinda and Stephen. (Confirmation of spelling in spite of the many records showing otherwise.)

Evelyn was postmistress for 25 years after her father, Alex, died. Her sister Nancy (Gerty) was the royal mail driver for 18 years. They and their descendants were members of United Church and burial was in the local United Cemetery and in the Brookside Cemetery in Bedford.

“I remember going to Canada even when I was only about three or four. We met our grandparents at the dock in Halifax. I remember my grandfather taking me and my sister (a year and a half younger than I) by the hand and getting a banana for each of us. After the trip from Massachusetts on the ship we were hungry and the banana sure tasted good. It’s funny the things you remember. But it sure gave me a great remembrance of my grandfather.

I remember going again in May of 1938, with my mother to see her father who was very ill. He died that year in August. It was the smell of the May flowers in the field across the road that I remember so well. I drew a picture of their home in Mount Uniacke with our home in Massachusetts beside it, which is what I wanted at the time.

My grandfather Robert Hambrook Creed was a carpenter and cabinet maker. His wife, my grandmother was Margaret Ella Wood. Again it was the senses that I associated with the visit.” — ‘Betty’

Robert Wendell was in the US Navy 1948-1952 Dental Technician. Returned to Western Electric after Navy until 1959. After 4 years with W.M. Gay contractors, he became a Building manager for various buildings until 2006 when he retired. Shared the research work with Betty with respect to the children’s dystonia problems.

They had the following children:

1047 iii. Carolyn Ruth GAY (1957-)
1048 iv. Douglas Matthew GRAY (NEE GAY) (1962-)
1049 v. Michael Anthony GAY (1965-)
Because three of her children were diagnosed with dystonia (a type of Parkinson’s disease), Betty Gay started researching her family tree in 1970. In 1994 she started looking at the Scot connection by communicating with a Dr. Iggo of the Association of Scottish Genealogists and Researchers. After sixteen years of searches a letter was found in the USA which provided information needed and in 2001 the first two generations of the Wood family to Nova Scotia were completed. (Among other things it reinforced the name of our senior ancestor to be John). Having seen her work and her enthusiasm one can only have the highest respect for that which she has been able to achieve. Betty Gay’s home is still Cincinnati.

A 2015 June personal communication from Betty Gay: “I would like to continue to work with the genealogy, but I just don’t get around the way I used to. It’s a shame because I loved researching everywhere. I especially loved the contacts I made in Canada, Scotland, England and of course in New England where I was born and raised. I miss the ocean and the coastline. We traveled all over with our five children when they were young and before they became disabled. It was fun and I’m so glad they have that to remember.”

Vernon is very active in the Gideon Organization and in 2014 the Provincial president. His father had a dairy farm in Salem. As a child Vernon sold seeds when very young and in his teens sold mushrooms on the side of the road. The next step was a neighbour’s shed in the summer as a farm produce outlet. For him it was an easy step to his first Farmer Clem’s.

As a child he was very fond of his uncle who lived a half mile down the road in South Rawdon from his grandfather’s place. He named his farm market after him. After the sign was up his father asked him where he got the name and it was only at that time that Vernon found out that his uncle was ‘Lem’ Wood and not ‘Clem’ Wood. His farm outlets retained the name Farmer Clem’s. By 1988 he had 9 Garden Centres. His family were involved with him. In the mid 1970s his father Kenneth went to Cape Breton to open another branch assuming it to be for a short time; however he stayed there for the rest of his life.

Eckford Parish, Roxburghshire, Scotland. (Circa 1800).

The Wood-Cranston relationship began when John Wood, blacksmith working in Cessford in 1790, married Margaret Cranston who was born in Caverton in 1757.

Note the hamlet of Caverton at upper centre of the map. About two inches below it is Cessford. The small hamlets about one and one half miles apart have now practically disappeared and only a farm exists replacing them.

GEORGE CRANSTON

The following, (Part B), was completed by Donald Chapman in early 2016. Don is married to a descendant of George Cranston, (father of Margaret who married John Wood in 1790). Extensive collaboration took place between Donald and myself, (descendant of John Wood). Colin Cranston of Scotland, (also a descendant of George Cranston), collaborated with both of us. 29 Apr 2015 Modified Register for George CRANSTOWN-79828 Page 339
6000 or so names in the reports multiplied by the numbers of varied statistics for each name opens the opportunity for error. Errors appear as a result of computer program, writing program, personal errors and those occurring in the data source. Editing is done to keep them to a minimum but they do appear. In some cases entries have been made in the text of the report to indicate a possible variance in a reported statistic.

This post script page is a method added to the Register Reports to add corrections to this type of record.
